Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana

MAY 19 AND 20, 1915

GRAND LODGE HALL,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 19, 1915.

The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, convened in its Seventy-ninth Semiannual Communication at 9 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by J. T. Arbuckle, Grand Master.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum present.

The opening ode was sung and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer as follows:

O God, our Heavenly Father, maker of all things in heaven and earth, we thank and adore Thee, that Thy loving kindness, goodness and mercies have been over us all of our lives. We thank Thee for the prosperity of our beloved Order. We pray Thee that our Motto—Friendship, Love and Truth—may be universal among mankind. We earnestly ask that Thy richest benedictions may ever abide with our beloved Order. Bless all our brothers and their loved ones. We thank Thee, O God, for our country, and our flag, and all it represents, and we ask that Thou, O God, will bless our President in this trying and critical time. Forbid that we may be embroiled in war, wilt Thou, O God. Give direction and wisdom to him who is our ruler at this time, and may we as a nation be guided safely through this most critical time in our history as a nation. And now may the blessings of God, the Father Almighty, and His Son, Jesus Christ, be on us and all mankind for ever. Amen.

The Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, declared the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

On motion of Edwin Farrer, P. G. Rep., the reading of the minutes of the last Communication was dispensed with, the same having been printed and circulated.

The roll of Grand Officers was called and noted present as follows:

J. T. ARBUCKLE, Grand Master.
JESSE MACBETH, Deputy Grand Master.
A. A. SPEARS, Grand Warden.
W. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary.

J. W. Cooper, Past Grand Representative, of No. 133.

T. R. Jessup, Past Grand Representative, of No. 212.

The Grand Secretary made the following appointments which, on motion, were approved by the Grand Lodge:

Jno. F. Wallick, Journal Clerk.

Jno. H. Carroll, Custodian of the Secret Journal.

H. M. Kean, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That when this Grand Lodge adjourns it be until 9 a.m. tomorrow, and that all our members present are hereby requested to go on the excursion to our Home at Greensburg at 12:30 today, and participate in the unveiling and dedication of the monument recently erected to the memory of those members of the Home who have or may in the future pass across the dark river. Further, that the Grand Secretary is authorized to receive and publish in the Daily Journal such reports of the Committees as shall be filed in his office by 4:30 this p.m.

The report of J. T. Arbuckle, Grand Master, with appendix, was submitted as follows:

REPORT OF GRAND MASTER.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The Constitution of this Grand Lodge provides that one of the duties of the Grand Master shall be to make report to the Grand Lodge of his acts and doings in relation thereto, and in compliance with that provision I hereby submit for your information and for such action as you may deem proper this report of my official acts, together with other information which may be of interest to you. It affords me much pleasure to report to you that the Order in this State at this time is in good condition and there is a bright prospect ahead for Odd Fellowship in Indiana. I do not mean to say that every lodge is prospering, for such a statement would not be true, but I do mean to say that the Order, on the whole, is in a healthy condition. During the last six months I have been busy with the affairs of Odd Fellowship, and I hope that my efforts have not been fruitless, but that the next report will show gains on account of the work which has been done.

District Deputy Conferences.

Soon after the November session of this Grand Lodge, Grand Secretary Leedy arranged a series of District Deputy Conferences which were held by Grand Patriarch, Henry F. Fulling, and myself, and on several occasions Grand Secretary Leedy, Past Grand Master Nauer, and Grand Instructor Farrer were present and made talks. The State was divided into nine districts, and each District Deputy Grand Patriarch and District Deputy Grand Master in the State was notified of the time and place of the conference in his district. These conferences were held at the places and on the dates named below: Terre Haute, December 15th; Evansville, December 16th; New Albany, December 17th; Indianapolis, December 18th; Greensburg, December 21st; Muncie, December 22d; Peru, December 23d; Goshen, December 29th, and Rensselaer, December 30th. Out of the ninety-two District Deputy Grand Masters in Indiana, seventy-three of them were in attendance. These conferences were held for the purpose of forming a closer relationship between the Grand Officers and the Deputies and to discuss ways and means of putting the Order on a firmer basis, and increasing the membership, and doing such other things as would benefit the Order, and I am sure these meetings were helpful, and good has resulted from them.

Meetings.

It was decided by the Grand Officers and President of the Rebekah Assembly to continue the Joint Round Table Meetings along the same lines as those held last year, and Grand Secretary Leedy kindly took upon himself the additional burden of arranging the dates and places of holding same. Forty-eight meetings have been held as follows: Ft. Wayne, Avilla, Cutler, Franklin, Fillmore, Roachdale, Monticello, Star City, Atlanta, Chalmers, Stone Bluff, Rosedale, Colfax, Logansport, Cadiz, Martinsville, Hortonville, Marion, Linn Grove, Wabash, Mitchell, Grand View, Princeton, Washington, Clay City, North Judson, Warren, Winchester, Gentryville, Hatfield, Mt. Vernon, Prairie Creek, New Castle, Lafayette, Frankfort, Angola, Kimmel, Geneva, Valparaiso, Monon, Crawfordsville, Plainfield, Milltown, Bennington, Greensburg, Union City, Rushville, and Meridian Lodge Anniversary, Indianapolis. These were not all Round Table Meetings, as some of them were special, but they all took on the nature of Round Table Meetings, and I have not deemed it necessary to classify them. At all points where Round Table Meetings were held, there was usually two meetings, an afternoon meeting for the members and a public meeting in the evening, so as a matter of fact we have had perhaps sixty-five or seventy meetings. Most of these meetings were well attended and there was much enthusiasm shown, but I am sorry to say that at some places the attendance was very small and little, if any, good was accomplished. This, of course, was because of the fact that the lodges and members did not have sufficient interest in the work to advertise the meetings, or to make any effort to get out a crowd, and, as a matter of fact, did nothing to help make the meeting a success. However, on the whole, I feel that the meetings have been worth while, and I am sure the Order has been benefited, especially at points where there was sufficient interest shown by the lodges to get out the people.

Steel City Lodge, No. 853, vs. McSheehy Lodge, No. 878.

In the matter of Steel City Lodge No. 853, against McSheehy Lodge, No. 878, a record of which is found in the proceedings of the November Session, 1914, of this Grand Lodge at page 9771, I have to report that soon after the close of the November session I appointed Bro. Francis E. Lambert, of South Bend, as a Commissioner to take the evidence in the case and instructed him to report at this session. Some time ago I was informed by the District Deputy of Lake County that a friendly feeling has arisen between the two lodges, and that the disturbing factor in McSheehy Lodge is no longer active, and I decided that if a condition of harmony could be brought about, and we could have the assurance that there would be no further infractions of the laws, and both lodges would practice the true fraternal spirit which is taught by Odd Fellowship, it might inure to the interest of the Order at Gary to postpone further action in the controversy for the present, and in consultation with Brother Lambert, the District Deputy and other Grand Lodge Officers, they agreed that a delay in the matter could work no very great harm, and might result in good, so for the present the further action in the matter is continued, to be dealt with as justice demands and as the best interests of the Order may dictate, or as you may direct.

Consolidations.

Soon after I assumed the duties of this office I was informed that Arsene Rebekah Lodge, No. 755, had consolidated with Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 407, of East Chicago, and that the rituals and effects of Arsene Lodge had been sent to the Grand Secretary. I have authorized the consolidation of Pittsburg Lodge, No. 766, with Jordon Lodge, No. 836; Morning Star Lodge, No. 7, of Evansville, with Eagle Lodge, No. 579, of the same city; New Albany Lodge, No. 10, of New Albany, with Hope Lodge, No. 83, of the same city. In each instance the result of my investigation warranted the consolidation.

Committee on Revision of General Laws.

During the May session, 1914, of this Grand Lodge, the Grand Master appointed a committee, composed of Grand Secretary W. H. Leedy, P. G. Rep. J. L. Harman and P. G. Rep. George Shirts, to revise the General Laws of this Grand Lodge. During the annual Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, held last September, a committee was appointed to revise the Sovereign Grand Lodge laws, and to report at the next session, which will be held next September. It was thought best not to revise our by-laws until after the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge have been revised, therefore the Grand Master at the November session, 1914, of this Grand Lodge continued said committee, and I recommend that a further continuance of said committee be made and that the Revision Committee be instructed to report at the November, 1915, session of this Grand Lodge, provided it is able to complete its work after receiving the revised laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Reinstatements.

I have had but one request for the reinstatement of an expelled member. Shawswick Lodge, No. 177, asked permission to reinstate Bro. Marion Tincher to membership, he having been expelled from said lodge for intoxication, and I granted permission to do so.

District Deputies.

The District Deputy Grand Masters are, in a large measure, performing the duties of their office with zeal and fidelity, and I have received much aid and assistance from them. It is true that some of them have been lax in their duties, and have given the office no more time than was absolutely necessary to make the reports, and in such cases I shall not hesitate to make a change in the future, unless better service is rendered, or at least I shall recommend a change to the Grand Master next year. I have been informed that some of the Deputies have not visited a single lodge and seldom attend their own lodge meetings. Certainly a District Deputy should have sufficient interest in his office to do something besides make the report required by law. I am glad to report that there are only a few of these inactive Deputies, and that most of the Deputies are loyal to the Grand Master and loyal to the Order, and I shall do my part next year to bring the percentage of working deputies up to the highest point.

Delinquencies.

At every Round Table Meeting held, I have taken occasion to speak on the subject of delinquencies, and to call attention of the members to the great drain upon our Order, caused by non-payment of dues. Last year the proportion of our loss in this respect was approximately three members dropped for non-payment of dues out of every four members admitted. This enormous loss is often caused in a measure by the neglect of the Financial Secretary and also by the members failing to do anything to retain those who may become delinquent. If the members and lodges will do one-half as much work to retain a worthy brother who may become delinquent as they do to get a new member, our loss would not be nearly so heavy. I would not have the members abate in the least in their efforts to get new members, but only urge more work to retain the present members.

Weak Lodges.

The Grand Secretary, in his report, shows that there are a large number of very weak lodges in this State, many of them having few more than a quorum in membership. I feel that there should be a special effort made to help the weak, inactive lodges and place them on a firmer basis and if there can be a scheme devised which will add to the membership of the Order generally, and especially to the membership of these weak lodges, I certainly recommend its adoption. In conference with other Grand Lodge Officers, we were of the opinion that this Grand Lodge should authorize the appointment of a special agent, whose duty it should be to visit the weak lodges and spend as much time with them as may be necessary in order to add to their membership and get them on a firmer basis, such agent to report to the Grand Master and Grand Secretary as to his success and as to conditions at places where he visits, in order that the Grand Master might take such action as may seem for the best interest of the Order. Such special agent should be appointed by the Grand Master, with the advice and consent of the Grand Secretary, and should be under their control, and his compensation should be fixed before his appointment, and he should be subject to removal at any time when he is not properly performing his duties. I recommend the appointment of such an agent.

The Rebekah Branch.

The Rebekah Branch of our Order is doing splendid work for Odd Fellowship in Indiana and is in a reasonably prosperous condition, but I feel that the subordinate members are not giving to the Rebekahs the support and encouragement which they deserve, and which the best interests of the Order demand. More of the subordinate members should join the Rebekah Lodges and thus not only help the Rebekah Lodges, but also help the Order as a whole, for I feel confident that there is no one thing which is more needed by the Rebekah Lodges of Indiana at this time than the loyal support of the subordinate members. Sister Clark, President of the Rebekah Assembly, and the other Assembly Officers are doing magnificent work for Rebekah Odd Fellowship, and certainly the Order is elevated and inspired by their noble work, and if they had the support of our membership which they deserve and should have, there is no reason why this Jurisdiction should not again stand first in membership of the jurisdictions of the world.

The Encampment Branch.

It is a real pleasure to me to be able to assure the brothers that the Encampment Branch of our Order is in good condition, and that Grand Patriarch Henry F. Fulling is doing a splendid work. He is effective, and commands the respect and confidence of all who meet him. His heart is in the work and he is devoting much time to the upbuilding of his department of the Order. He has been one of my traveling companions during the past six months, and while I hardly knew him before we became so closely identified in this work, yet during the time we have been working together I have learned to love him as a brother. The Encampment Branch is fortunate in having Brother Fulling as Grand Patriarch, and I anticipate a substantial gain during his term.

Decisions.

It has been my ambition to call especial attention of the lodges of this Jurisdiction to the fact that the District Deputy Grand Master is the representative of the Grand Master in his district, and as such should have proper recognition, and I have been insisting at all the Round Table Meetings that the laws of our Order should be observed in the matter of presenting questions, and that all questions should first be submitted to the District Deputy for answer. I feel sure that my efforts along this line have borne fruit, for at this time I am not receiving nearly so many questions as formerly. I am referring most of the questions which come to me to the District Deputies with instructions to give them proper attention. Except in cases where I feel that the questions would ultimately come to me, I am answering only such questions as are presented by the District Deputies. I feel that since the District Deputy is the highest officer in our Order in his county, his position and the importance of the office entitle him to the respect of the members, and in this way I feel that we may be able to elevate the efficiency of the Deputies and strengthen the Order.

The General Relief Committee.

So far as I am advised the General Relief Committee law which was enacted at the last session of this Grand Lodge is working nicely. There was some question in the minds of some of the brothers as to the legality of its enactment, and feeling that they were perfectly sincere in their contention, and that possibly there might be some question as to the legality of the enactment of the law I wrote to Grand Sire Robert T. Daniel, of Griffin, Ga., giving to him a statement of the steps taken in the enactment of the law, as I understood them, and asking him for a decision on the matter in order to clear any question that may exist as to the legality of the law. The statement and the Grand Sire's answer follow:

"Section 3, Article 6, of the Constitution of Indiana, I. O. O. F. reads as follows:

'Sec. 3. General Laws. Every proposed law and every amendment to the laws already in force, and every resolution having the effect of a general law for the government of Subordinate Lodges, shall, before being enacted, be submitted to some standing or select committee for consideration. Nor shall any law, order or resolution, as above specified, be enacted upon the day of its introduction, except by unanimous vote.'

Section 5 of the Grand Lodge Laws reads as follows:

'Sec. 5. Legislative. The Legislative Committee shall be composed of five members, to which shall be referred all propositions for changes in constitutional and general laws, and it shall report thereon.'

STATEMENT.

At the November session, 1913, of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, a proposition was presented that provided that, "In cities and towns where two or more lodges existed, such lodges shall organize a General Relief Committee" and provisions governing such committee were a part of the resolution. This was referred to the Legislative Committee. At the same session, and on the next and second day of said session, the Legislative Committee reported favorably to its adoption, the matter having laid over, under the rules to the second day for action. After discussion, and on motion, the whole matter was referred to a Special Committee of three appointed by the Grand Master, with instructions to report at the May, 1914, session. On the first day of the May, 1914, session, the Special Committee reported and submitted a proposition which provided that all cities and towns in the jurisdiction of Indiana where two or more lodges exist, such lodges shall organize a General Relief Committee, etc. This proposition was laid over under the rules until next day. The next day the report was taken up for consideration and, on motion, was laid over till one o'clock of the same day. At the stated time the matter was taken up and on motion was postponed for further consideration until the afternoon of the first day of the next communication, November, 1914. At the time set in the November session the matter was again taken up and the Special Committee made the following report: 'Your Special Committee, to whom was referred at the November session, 1913, the subject of reporting on the advisability of a law creating and governing General Relief Committees in the State of Indiana, recommend that the law be amended to provide for a General Relief Committee in every city and town in the State of Indiana in which there are three or more lodges located,' etc. In considering this report the question was raised and some contended that action could not be taken by the Grand Lodge until the matter had again been referred and reported on by the Legislative Committee (the regular committee). The chair ruled that the Special Committee to whom the matter had been referred was a Special Legislative Committee, and any action taken by the lodge on the report of the Special Committee, would be legal and binding. The report was submitted to the Grand Lodge and on motion adopted.

Question 1. Was the ruling of the chair, that 'the Special Committee to whom the matter was referred on the recommendation of the Legislative Committee was a Special Legislative Committee vested with all the powers of the regular Legislative Committee,' correct?

Question 2. It will be noted that the matter reported by the Legislative Committee, and on its recommendation referred to the Special Committee, provided, "that all cities and towns where TWO or more lodges exist, such lodges shall organize a General Relief Committee," etc., and when the Special Committee made its report, which was finally adopted, the proposition was changed by it and said final report reading 'that in all cities and towns where THREE or more lodges exist, etc.,' thus changing the number of lodges necessary to require the organization of a General Relief Committee in any city or town from TWO to THREE. Had the Special Committee the right to make said change, no definite action having been taken on the proposition prior to the time of its final adoption and fixing the number of lodges at three?

Question 3. Was the law legally amended, and is it now binding on the Lodges of Indiana?"

"January 13, 1915.

Mr. J. T. Arbuckle, Grand Master of Indiana, I. O. O. F., Rushville, Ind.:

My Dear Grand Master—Your letter of the 9th, submitting questions for my decision, received.

The statement upon which the questions are predicated omit one step in the proceedings. It appears from the statement of fact that the Special Committee made a report at the May session of 1914. At this session the subject-matter was 'postponed for further consideration until the afternoon of the first day of next communication in November, 1914.' I presume that the matter was again referred to the Special Committee, for you state: 'At the stated time the matter was again taken up and the Special Committee made the following Report.' As this special committee had made a report at the May session, and again at the November session, I presume that the matter was recommitted, and I will answer the questions on this hypothesis. I hold that the Grand Lodge had the right to recommit the matter to the Special Committee at the May session, or at the November session.

The amendment to the laws when presented at the November session of 1913, was referred to the Legislative Committee, as provided by law. This committee considered and reported on the amendment and the same lay over as required by law. The report of the Legislative Committee was then regularly and legally before the Grand Lodge for their action. The Grand Lodge referred the matter to a Special Committee, as it had the right to do, and this Special Committee had the right to amend the report of the Legislative Committee. When the report of the Special Committee came up for final action, it did not have to be referred back to the Legislative Committee. I do not regard the Special Committee as a Special Legislative Committee, as I have seen no law of your Grand Lodge that provides for a Special Legislative Committee. But this Special Committee had full power to deal with this subject-matter that the Grand Lodge had invested the committee with, namely to consider and report. I therefore answer your questions as follows:

Answer to Question 1. No. It was not a Special Legislative Committee but it was vested with powers to submit amendments to the report presented by the Legislative Committee.

Answer to Question 2. The Special Committee had the right to offer an amendment providing that the organization of General Relief Committees would apply to cities and towns having three or more lodges therein.

Answer to Question 3. Yes.

Yours fraternally,

ROBT. T. DANIEL,
Grand Sire."

The Home.

It has been my pleasure and privilege to visit our Home at Greensburg on several occasions, and it is with much satisfaction that I can speak in terms of high commendation of its efficient management. I feel that the Home is getting full value for every dollar expended and the Home Board is to be congratulated on the splendid manner in which it is conducting the affairs of the institution. I spent the day at the Home on April 26th, and took a stroll alone out among the residents. I found them happy and, although it may seem unreasonable, they all appeared contented; at least all to whom I talked. The Home is clean and sanitary, and shows that Brother and Sister Lockhart are doing a wonderful work; in fact they are making life pleasant for 148 unfortunate people, a task which few of us would care to undertake. It is a real inspiration to hear the residents of the Home speak in endearing terms of Brother and Sister Lockhart, and to show their appreciation of the things that are being done for them by acts of devotion. I did not hear an unkind word spoken of either of them by any resident of the Home, and in most instances the residents did not know to whom they were talking, or that I had any special interest in the institution. I can not speak too highly of the superintendent and Mrs. Lockhart and the work they are doing, and I am sure it would be a difficult task to find a better or more efficient superintendent than Brother Lockhart.

The Monument.

Some time ago the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Indiana made a generous free-will offering to provide a fund for the purchase and erection of a monument on our lot in the Greensburg cemetery. The Committee having charge of the purchase and erection of this monument has finished its work and has exercised wise judgment in the modesty and appropriateness of the memorial erected. It is now located on the lot and in conference with other Grand Lodge Officers we have arranged for its unveiling and dedication this afternoon at 4 o'clock by a ceremony which we are sure will always be remembered by all who witness it. I hope that as many of the members of this Grand Lodge as can possibly do so will attend this dedication and at the same time visit that other magnificent monument to Indiana Odd Fellowship, the Home.

The Talisman.

I desire to publicly acknowledge my obligations to The Talisman Publishing Company for the many courtesies shown me. The columns of that splendid Odd Fellows Journal have been at my command at all times, and through it I have been able to keep in touch with the membership generally. I feel that The Talisman is of real worth to the Order, and does its share toward keeping up interest and arousing enthusiasm among the members. The best lodges in Indiana are at points where The Talisman is most widely circulated, and I urge the membership to give this Fraternal paper loyal support for by so doing, Odd Fellowship will be benefited.

Billy Leedy.

In every nation, in every State, in every community and in every fraternal organization, there is usually one man who, by his achievements and unselfishness, stands and towers above his fellows and who is recognized as the leader, and in Indiana Odd Fellowship no man stands higher than that prince of Odd Fellows, Billy Leedy, our Grand Secretary.

The old song says, "Have you trials and temptations, or are you weak and heavy laden, take it to the Lord in prayer," and so when I have been weak and heavy laden, I have gone to Billy Leedy, and when I have had trials and temptations in my work as Grand Master, I have taken it to Billy Leedy, and in him I have always found a sympathizing brother, a courteous, unselfish friend, a wise counsellor and an Odd Fellow who is never satisfied unless he is doing something for some brother of the great Order to which he is so devotedly and ardently attached. To Billy Leedy I owe much, more than I ever hope to be able to repay, but to Billy Leedy the Odd Fellows of Indiana owe more. May the Lord protect, bless and keep him and all that are near and dear to him.

Acknowledgments.

So many of the Odd Fellows of Indiana have been kind to me and shown me courtesies, that if I were to speak of all, this report would be far too lengthy, but I can not close without speaking of some of them.

Grand Instructor and Past Grand Representative Farrer, always my friend and brother, has in many ways proven his friendship and his loyalty to me and the Order, and especially did he do so when he kindly made several visits to attend Round Table Meetings when it was impossible for me to go. Past Grand Master Nauer has given me the benefit of his ripe experience as Grand Master and has never failed to lend a helping hand when in need.

To Past Grand Representative Hollywood and Mrs. Hollywood I owe much, for they have never lost an opportunity to say a kind word, or do a kind act when opportunity offered.

Bro. Frank McQuiddy, Mrs. Albro and Miss Williamson, those efficient and loyal assistants to the Grand Secretary have never lost an opportunity to lend me any assistance in their power, and have scattered many a flower along my path.

When one has traveled around Indiana as I have done with Grand Patriarch Fulling and Sister Clark, the President of the Assembly, he then has an opportunity to learn their true worth and beauty of character, and to both of them I am indebted for many suggestions for the benefit of Odd Fellowship.

I have not words to express my gratitude to Grand Secretary Leedy for his kindness to me. If I have been of service to the Order, the larger share of the credit belongs to Brother Leedy, for his was the guiding hand.

He was the inspiration; his were the ideas carried out.

Conclusion.

The first half of my term as Grand Master has expired, and I can say in all candor and in truthfulness, I have enjoyed the work, and have tried to do my duty as I saw it, and only the future will disclose whether or not my efforts have been worth while. The members have been uniformly kind and considerate, and not an unkind word has been spoken to me by any brother. When I became your Grand Master, I asked the brothers to give me their loyal support, and in the main I believe I have had it. I now ask the Odd Fellows of Indiana to do their share, and I promise to do mine and we will see a wonderful gain in membership. With full confidence in the desire of the Odd Fellows of Indiana to make our Order a potent influence in every community for the uplift of mankind, I remain,

Yours fraternally,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "J. S. Arbuttle". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the title "Grand Master."

Grand Master.

APPENDIX.Decisions.

(Approved when not otherwise indicated.)

1. Q.—Do the laws of the Order prohibit the admission of a person who is a member of the Catholic church?

A.—No, our Order makes no distinction as to church membership.

2. Q.—Is it unlawful for one member to accuse another of casting a black ball before the ballot has been announced by the Noble Grand?

A.—Such accusations should not be made at any time.

3. Q.—When an applicant has been rejected in a Rebekah Lodge, can she make application again before the expiration of six months?

A.—No, she must wait six months.

4. Statement: "B" lives in the jurisdiction of Lodge "A". He became a member of Lodge "C" which received proper waiver from Lodge "A" to initiate him. The reason for which the brother joined Lodge "C" no longer exists, and he desires to change his membership to Lodge "A" in whose jurisdiction he lives and has lived ever since he became a member of the Order, he not having changed his residence.

Q.—Can he change his membership to Lodge "A" on withdrawal card or a transfer certificate, and will there be a fee?

A.—Since the brother has not changed his residence, he can not transfer by Transfer Certificate, as only those who change residence are entitled to Transfer Certificate. See Sec. 67, Gen. Laws, 1915; he can change by withdrawal card and the fees will be not more than 50c for the card, and not less than $5.00 for depositing same. See Sections 66 and 76, Gen. Laws, 1915.

5. Statement: "A," being a member of a lodge in this state in good standing, is killed in a railroad accident, leaving a wife and six children; the wife is 35 years old and the children are all under 12 years of age. The brother left no property except household goods; the wife received from the railroad company and in insurance about $800.00.

Q.—(a) Is the lodge required to keep the widow and children, furnish them with clothing and provisions, pay rent and pay for the entertainment of company and relatives without any assistance from the widow?

A.—(a) Not if she has money with which to pay the expenses mentioned.

Q.—(b) Is the lodge required to keep the widow if she refuses to work, she being strong and healthy, and having money to keep her?

A.—(b) No.

Q.—(c) Can the children be placed in the Home at Greensburg without her consent?

A.—(c) No.

6. Q.—A Rebekah Lodge has been dormant for a number of years, but has now revived and has organized a degree staff and has work to do, but has no Past Grand member; can a sister who is going through the chairs at this time take the part of N. G. in the degree staff?

A.—If you can not procure a Past Grand I can see no reason why one of the present officials should not take the part of N. G. in the degree staff, as that seems to be the only way you can do the work.

7. Q.—Can a member of a lodge serve as Treasurer, who has money borrowed from the lodge and has not paid the interest?

A.—Yes, if legally elected and qualified.

8. Q.—Is a brother eligible to the office of V. G. if he has not served in an elective or appointive office?

A.—No. See Sec. 24, page 47, Gen. Laws, 1915.

9. Q.—When tellers have canvassed the ballots, should the number of votes received by each candidate be announced, or should they announce only the name of the person receiving the largest vote?

A.—The number of votes cast for each candidate should be announced.

10. Q.—When more than three candidates are being balloted for for the same office, must the one receiving the lowest number of votes on each ballot, be dropped?

A.—Under the law relating to election of officers, as amended, I should say, No. See Sec. 27, Gen. Laws, 1915, page 49.

11. Statement: A lodge voted to appropriate the sum of $20.00 to be used for the purpose of buying Veteran Buttons to be presented to members of the lodge who were entitled to wear them, and then voted to give a supper and charge the members 25c each for supper, the proceeds to be used to reimburse the treasury for the sum used in buying the Veteran Buttons.

Q.—Can the lodge legally do this?

A.—It would not be legal to appropriate the money from the general funds of the lodge to pay for the buttons. The lodge can legally give the supper mentioned and charge the brothers 25c for each supper, and can use the money to buy the buttons, if it so decides.

12. Statement: A sojourning brother becomes sick; neither his lodge nor the lodge in whose jurisdiction he resides pay nurse hire, but both nurse by watchers.

Q.—Can the lodge in whose jurisdiction the brother resides require his own lodge to levy an assessment to pay the brother's son for nursing him?

A.—No.

13. Q.—Whose duty is it to care for this brother?

A.—If registered, as required by Sec. 130, Gen. Laws, it is the duty of the lodge in whose jurisdiction the brother lives.

14. Statement: A member of a lodge in Indiana lives in Washington, D. C., and is registered there. The first part of the year he became sick and was reported to the lodge in Washington with which he is registered, which lodge paid him five weeks' benefits, the last payment being on May 11th, at which time he left Washington and reported to the lodge there that he was going in the jurisdiction of his home lodge, and was declared off the sick list of the Washington lodge and so reported to his home lodge. He went some where near Chicago, but did not report to his home lodge, nor did he register with any lodge. His home lodge and the Washington lodge were under the impression that he was well, and had no word to the contrary. Some time in November, he again appeared at Washington and reported himself sick to the Washington lodge.

Q.—Shall the time he reported himself sick in November be regarded as a new sickness, or shall he be paid benefits from May 11th prior?

A.—I am of the opinion that the sickness in November should be regarded as a new sickness.

15. Q.—If the present Noble Grand is re-elected, who fills the Past Grand's chair?

A.—Any Past Grand is eligible.

16. Q.—If a member is in arrears for dues one year, can he be dropped from the roll without notice?

A.—Not legally.

17. Q.—A sister P. G. Rebekah is dropped for non-payment of dues; afterwards she is reinstated in the lodge. Is she eligible to hold office of Noble Grand in degree staff?

A.—Yes.

18. Statement: A sister Rebekah who has served a term as Vice Grand becomes delinquent and is dropped for nonpayment of dues. She is afterwards reinstated to membership in the lodge.

Q.—Is she eligible to the office of Noble Grand?

A.—Yes.

19. Q.—Can a Financial Secretary hold the position of installing officer?

A.—No, because he is one of the officers to be installed, and he can not install himself.

[Answer.—Amended to read: Not at the January installation, because he is one of the officers to be installed, and he can not install himself; but at the July installation he can hold the position of installing officer if he is a duly qualified Past Grand. See Sections 25 and 31 of the General Laws 1915.]

20. Q.—Is a brother eligible to the office of Vice Grand when the records do not show that he has served one term in an elective or appointive office, although he claims to have served one term in an appointive office?

A.—If he has really served one term in an elective or appointive office, the records could be corrected, and he would be eligible to the office of Vice Grand, and if he has not served one term in an elective or appointive office he would not be eligible.

21. Statement: We have two brothers now on the sick list drawing benefits at the rate of $4.00 per week. Recently we amended our by-laws, reducing the maximum benefits to $3.00 per week. Should these two sick brothers be reduced to $3.00 per week, or should they be kept on the list at $4.00 per week until the end of their sickness?

A.—The benefits should be reduced to conform to the present law, as the amendment to the by-laws applies to disabled members as well as all others.

22. Q.—Is there anything in our law prohibiting the Odd Fellows from owning a hall jointly with another benevolent order?

A.—The law does not prohibit it, but it is best to own the property solely if it can be done.

23. Q.—Is it legal to select a member of a trial committee of Past Grands from a lodge in an adjoining county?

A.—Yes, if it be one of the nearest or neighboring lodges.

24. We have an applicant for membership in our Rebekah Lodge who is a sister to an Odd Fellow in good standing, but her husband is not a member of the Order.

Q.—Is she eligible?

A.—Yes. See 1912—8259. Also Busbee's Digest, Sec. 2952.

25. Statement: A brother Odd Fellow dies in good standing in his lodge. Three years later his widow dies in good standing in the Rebekah Lodge. The oldest son was appointed administrator of the fathers estate, same not yet being fully settled. The Subordinate and Rebekah lodges paid to the son the funeral benefits for both, which he paid for nurse hire. There has been another party appointed administrator of the widow's estate, and he demands funeral benefits from the lodge for both.

Q.—Was the money misappropriated?

A.—Yes, by the son as administrator. It should have been paid on the funeral expenses.

[Answer.—Amended to read: Yes, if the son did not pay the funeral expenses. The Relief Committee of the lodge of which the deceased was a member is enjoined to see that the amount appropriated for funeral expenses be used for this purpose and this purpose only, and the payment of funeral expenses to an administrator does not meet that requirement unless it be shown that the administrator has really paid the funeral expenses. See Grand Lodge Proceedings 1911, page 767.]

26. Statement: A member of Manilla Lodge, No. 1, P. I., holding a receipt showing his dues paid to November 30, 1914, on November 3, 1914, makes application for membership by Transfer Certificate to a lodge in this State, and was elected thereto November 10th, and on the same day his lodge was so notified and Transfer Certificate requested by the Secretary of the lodge to which application was made.

Q.—In case the brother should become sick before the arrival of the Transfer Certificate to which lodge should he look for benefits?

A.—If entitled to benefits, he should look to Manilla Lodge, No. 1, for he does not become a member of the lodge in this State until the receipt by said lodge of the Transfer Certificate, and until he has signed the Constitution of such lodge. See Sec. 67, page 67, Gen. Laws.

27. Q.—When a member of the Order has been placed in an insane hospital, is his lodge required to pay for the clothing required by the State, and also to pay to his wife the full benefits?

A.—No, the lodge is only required to pay the benefits, although the money may be used for purchasing clothing if agreeable.

28. Statement: A member of the Order was placed in the Home at Greensburg in 1908 at his own request. He was there a few months and left without leave of the Home Board or Superintendent, and was later expelled by the Home Board. He is still a member of the lodge in good standing and keeps his dues paid in his lodge. Application was made for his readmission to the Home, but he was rejected.

Q.—Can we drop him from the lodge and exclude him from our meetings?

A.—No. He is a member in good standing and entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership so long as his dues are kept paid, and until charges have been preferred against him.

29. Statement: A brother failed to pay his dues on the last meeting night of the quarter, which was June 25th, but he did pay his dues on June 29th. He died on July 16th.

Q.—Was his widow entitled to funeral benefits?

A.—No. When a brother fails to pay his dues on the last meeting night in the quarter, but pays them before the end of the month, he is non-beneficial for thirteen weeks. See 1892, 1264-5; 1897, 215; 1905, 4470; 1911, 7682.

30. Statement: I am Secretary of the Rebekah Lodge and have been sending out delinquent notices as follows: The first notice has been sent out the first week of July, and the second notice has been sent out the first of December, giving the member one month before the first of the year to pay her dues.

Q.—Is this correct? Our D. D. G. M. says it is not.

A.—No; the first notice is correct, but you are wrong as to the time of sending the second, or final notice. Sec. 284 of the Gen. Laws, 1915, provides that members of Rebekah Lodges becoming one year in arrears for dues, shall be dropped from the roll, after being given two half yearly notices of delinquency under the same provisions as to notices that control in the case of Subordinate Lodges. Sec. 102 of the same law provides that in Subordinate Lodges the Secretary shall send out delinquent notices within ten days after the last meeting night in each quarter, etc., and the last, or final notice should be sent out within ten days after the last meeting night in the year of delinquency, which, if it should be the calendar year, would be the last meeting in December. The delinquent can not be legally dropped until after the fourth regular meeting (weekly) after the receipt of the final notice of delinquency. See Sec. 103. Therefore, if the delinquency is for the calendar year, your second or final notice should be sent out or delivered within ten days after the last meeting night in December, and the delinquent should not be dropped until after the expiration of the time fixed by law.

31. We date all our receipts for dues to the last day of the term for which they are paid.

Q.—If a brother fails to pay his dues the last meeting night in the quarter, would he be delinquent before the expiration of the quarter, supposing that the last meeting night were four days before the end of the quarter?

A.—Yes, for the succeeding quarter.

32. If a brother mails a check to the Financial Secretary of his lodge on the day of the last meeting night in the quarter, for his dues, and the Secretary does not receive the check for four days, would the brother be delinquent?

A.—If the check was mailed in time to have been delivered to or received by the Secretary on the day or night of the last meeting in the quarter by the regular mail service, then the brother would not be delinquent, otherwise he would.

[See decision No. 77. See action of G. L.]

33. In Rebekah Laws and Rules it says that "Installation shall have precedence over all other business."

Q.—Does that mean before the Auditing Committee report has been made and passed upon and before the order for the per capita tax has been drawn?

A.—No. The officers should not be installed until after the report and acceptance of the Auditing Committee, and the drawing of the order for the per capita tax.

34. Q.—Is the Noble Grand of a Rebekah Lodge entitled to the A. P. W. at the time of her installation, when her dues are not paid in advance for the life of such pass word?

A.—Yes, because of her official position.

35. Q.—Should the Noble Grand of a degree staff communicate to a candidate in a Rebekah Lodge the A. P. W. at the time of the conferring of the degree?

A.—No, not as a part of the instruction.

36. Q.—Should the report of the Trustees be presented and acted on before the installation of officers?

A.—Yes.

37. Q.—Does the fact that the officers are installed before the Trustees make their report invalidate the installation?

A. No. The Trustees being under bond, can be held to an accounting, and their failure to report before installation would not invalidate the installation.

38. Q.—Is the Noble Grand in a Rebekah Lodge whose dues are not paid in advance, but who is in good standing in the lodge, entitled to the Annual Pass Word?

A.—Yes; for the purpose of communicating it to those entitled to it.

The Annual Pass Word is used in connection with a receipt showing dues paid in advance.

39. Statement: A brother was taken sick with smallpox on December 28, 1914, and was unable to attend lodge and pay his dues, that being the day of the last meeting night in the quarter.

Q.—Is he entitled to benefits?

A.—Yes; for he was not delinquent when he became sick, and could not become delinquent while sick.

40. Q.—Has the Vice Grand in a Rebekah Lodge the right to communicate the Annual Pass Word to a member when the Noble Grand is present in the room?

A.—Only when so directed by the Noble Grand.

41. Q.—Is a brother whose dues are paid in advance to March 31st entitled to the A. T. P. W.?

A.—Yes; any brother whose dues are paid in advance is entitled to the A. T. P. W.

42. Q.—Is a brother from another jurisdiction who is in possession of the A. T. P. W. entitled to sit in a lodge room during the lodge when he has no receipt showing his dues paid in advance?

A.—No; he should present an official receipt or traveling card showing his dues paid in advance to be used in connection with the A. T. P. W.

43. Q.—Can a Subordinate Lodge which owns the hall, charge the Encampment for light and fuel?

A.—Yes; if the Subordinate Lodge is furnishing the light and fuel, it can require the Encampment to pay for what it uses.

44. Statement: A brother made application to join a lodge in another jurisdiction from that in which he lived. The lodge to which application was made, asked permission from the lodge in whose jurisdiction the candidate lived to admit him, which permission was granted, and he was duly initiated and made a member. Later the brother decided that he would rather belong to the lodge in whose jurisdiction he lives, and made application for a Transfer Certificate, which was refused by his lodge on the ground that he had not changed his residence.

Q.—Is the brother entitled to a Transfer Certificate, or should he make the change by card?

A.—Since the brother has not changed his residence, I will hold that he is not entitled to the Transfer Certificate, but the change should be made by withdrawal card. See Section 67, page 67, Gen. Laws.

45. Q.—Is it necessary for the Noble Grand in a Subordinate Lodge to sign the minutes of the meeting?

A.—He may do so after they have been approved by the lodge, but I do not think the law requires it.

46. Q.—Should the members of the Relief Committee sign the report?

A.—Yes; if made in writing, which is necessary when benefits are allowed.

47. Q.—When the Roll Book is kept, containing the names of all officers and the roll of attendance is kept in same, is it necessary to record the names of the absentees in the minutes?

A.—I do not deem it necessary to record the names of the absentees in the minutes, since the Roll Book contains their names, and shows their absence, although I think it a very good plan to follow.

48. Q.—Under the present Revenue Law, is it necessary to place a stamp on the bonds of the Financial Secretary and Treasurer?

A.—The Revenue Law provides that all bonds except those in legal proceedings necessary, shall have a 50c stamp, and I am of the opinion that the Treasurer and Financial Secretary bonds should have a 50c stamp placed on them.

49. Q.—Would it be legal of our lodge to meet in a body, carrying a banner with the name of our lodge described thereon and attend a mass meeting to protest against the sale and shipment of arms and ammunition to the nations of Europe which are now at war?

A.—There is no law directly on the subject, but I would doubt the propriety of the lodge doing such a thing. There might be members of the lodge who would have different opinions on the matter, and they are as much entitled to their honest opinions as the members of the mass meeting. Furthermore, this is a matter entirely aside from Odd Fellowship.

50. Statement: The work of our lodge is hindered by some brothers sending their dues by other brothers and causing confusion at the Secretary's desk.

Q.—Would the following amendment to our by-laws be legal: "Any brother paying the dues, fines or assessments of any other brother residing in the jurisdiction of this lodge and able to attend lodge meetings, shall be fined in a sum equal to the amount of dues, fines or assessments so paid for each offense"?

A.—Such an amendment would not be legal and is contrary to the spirit of Odd Fellowship.

51. Q.—When attending a funeral are all brothers required by law to return to the lodge room and answer the roll call personally, or is it sufficient to be present at the grave?

A.—Attendance at funerals, fines, penalties, etc., are regulated by the by-laws of each lodge. See Sec. 137, page 109, Gen. Laws.

52. Q.—When the trial committee reports its findings to the lodge, have the attorneys a right to argument in open lodge on the report, or must the lodge proceed to vote on the report without argument?

A.—On motion to concur in the report, the accused or his attorney as well as the attorney for the lodge or any member shall be permitted to submit argument. See 1858—1352; 1897—214, 456; 1904—3907.

53. Q.—Where there are two Rebekah Lodges in a city, and a sister desires to change her membership from one to the other, can she do so by Transfer Certificate?

A.—Not unless she changes her residence.

54. Q.—Can a Rebekah Lodge charge a sister $1.00 for a withdrawal card?

A.—No. The fee for a withdrawal card is 50c. See Sec. 76, Gen. Laws.

55. Statement: A brother became a member of the Order in 1878, and in 1894 was dropped for nonpayment of dues. He was reinstated in 1911 as a non-beneficial member. He now desires to change to a beneficial member.

Q.—Is there any law authorizing the change?

A.—Section 61 of the General Laws authorizes a brother to change from a beneficial member to a non-beneficial member, but I know of no law authorizing the change from non-beneficial membership to beneficial membership.

56. Q.—When two lodges consolidate, and the Noble Grand of the defunct lodge has served a majority of the meeting nights of the term, is he entitled to the honors of the office?

A.—Yes, the brother has performed his duty in so far as it is possible for him to do so, and the merging of his lodge with another can not rob him of the honors to which he is entitled. See, Section 1470 Busbee's Digest.

57. Q.—Is it legal to use third degree members as part of the staff for installing officers, or should the installing officers be Past Grands and members of the Grand Lodge?

A.—The members of the installing staff should be Past Grands and members of the Grand Lodge. In case the installing officer can not procure Past Grands as his assistants, then he may use third degree members. See Sec. 1402 Busbee's Digest.

58. Statement: By consent and approval of the Lodge, the Trustees loaned $500.00 for ten years, interest payable annually, and the note is in the hands of the Trustees.

Q.—In case the Trustees do not collect the interest, has any one else the right to do so?

A.—The interest should be collected by the Trustees and turned over to the Treasurer; however, the lodge is superior to its Trustees and has absolute control over its funds, and it may authorize the Financial Secretary or any other officer to collect the interest in case the Trustees fail to do so. See 1890—566 and 589; 1893—1632.

59. Q.—Should a third degree member be permitted to own and carry a key to the lodge room?

A.—Not unless he is the host or janitor, or holds some office in the lodge which entitled him to a key.

60. Q.—Has a brother who has been suspended from the lodge by operation of law, a right to attend lodge and participate in the proceedings before the expiration of the period for which he was suspended?

A.—No.

61. Q.—Is the lodge required to notify a suspended member of its action in suspending him?

A.—Yes; he should be notified by the Secretary, in writing.

62. Statement: Some time last October an application was made by a member of another lodge to become a member of our lodge by Transfer Certificate. Upon investigation it was learned that he had not changed his residence, and therefore was not entitled to a Transfer. He then made application to become a member by withdrawal card, and was admitted. At the time of his admission the Secretary was laboring under the impression that no fee was necessary for the card, but that he could come in on the card the same as a Transfer Certificate, and no fee was collected. Later the Secretary learned that a fee was necessary for admission by card, and went to the brother to collect the fee, and the brother refused to pay it.

Q.—What is the status of the brother in our lodge, and can he be required to pay the fee?

A.—If, at the time of his admission the brother knew of the law which requires a fee of $5.00 upon admission by card, he should be required to pay the money. On the other hand, if the brother did not know of such by-law, and if the officers of the lodge did not acquaint him with the law, or if he was given to understand by the lodge or its officers that there would be no fee charged, then it is the fault of the lodge and not the brother's and his membership can not be disturbed because of his refusal to pay the fee. The law requires that the fee shall accompany the application and your lodge was negligent in its duty in accepting the application and acting upon it unless it was accompanied by the proper fee. I find no law covering this particular case, but Section 1000 Busbee's Digest is nearest in point of any I have found. In that case it was held that where a brother was admitted for a less fee than is prescribed by law, on account of the Secretary's error, and not by any fraud on the part of the brother, his membership can not afterwards be disturbed on account of such error.

63. Statement: A brother paid his dues on the last meeting night in September, 1913, and has paid no dues since.

Q.—When should he be dropped for non-payment of dues?

A.—Four weeks after the last meeting night in December, 1914.

64. Q.—Is the daughter of an Odd Fellow who is married to a man who is not an Odd Fellow, also the mother of an Odd Fellow who is married to a man not an Odd Fellow, eligible to membership in a Rebekah Lodge?

A.—Yes; to both questions.

65.—Statement: A member of our lodge was sick and was placed in the I. O. O. F. Home at Greensburg. He was afterward taken to the insane hospital at Richmond. He has a dependent daughter 16 years of age, also a guardian.

Q.—Is it the duty of the lodge to pay sick benefits, if so, to whom should they be paid?

A.—Yes; to the daughter, the dependent relative.

66. Q.—Is it a violation of the laws for a lodge to rent its hall to a religious denomination for the purpose of holding religious services?

A.—No.

67. Statement: Charges were preferred against a brother by an investigating committee, and a trial committee was appointed. The trial committee omitted the names of the investigating committee from the copy of the charges delivered to the accused, because the committee asked that their names be omitted for the reason that they were business men, and their names on the charges might injure their business.

Q.—Did the brother have a legal notice, and can we go to trial on that kind of notice?

A.—I would not consider that the brother had a legal notice. Section 191 of the General Laws provides that the Trial Committee shall furnish to the Secretary a copy of the charges, and Section 192 provides that the Secretary shall furnish the accused a copy of the charges and the names of the witnesses at the time of giving the notice. If the names of the Investigating Committee are omitted from the copy sent the accused, he has not had a true copy of the charges, and in that particular the accused has not had a true copy.

68. Q.—Can a brother be tried on a copy of charges, and if a trial is had on a copy of charges, would it be legal? If not, why not?

A.—Trial can not legally be had on a copy of charges, because there is no law authorizing it. Trial must be had on the original charges. The reason is plain. The state laws govern in cases where our laws are silent, and as we have no law which authorizes an accused to be tried on a copy of charges, therefore the laws of the state in the trial of persons accused of misdemeanors would apply, and in those cases trial must be had on an indictment, signed by the prosecuting attorney and foreman of the grand jury, or an affidavit, properly signed and sworn to by some person and signed by the prosecuting attorney.

[Amended to read: The answer should be yes, if the original charges are lost or destroyed and a certified copy, certified to be by the Noble Grand and Secretary under the Seal of the Lodge can be produced. The Grand Lodge Laws, Section 215, General Law 1915, provide that, "The rules of the civil law shall apply to and control in the conduct of trials and admission of evidence, whenever the code is silent; the civil laws provide that when an indictment or affidavit is lost, a trial may be had on a certified copy, and we recommend that the same be approved.]

69. Q.—When there is a disagreement between a Subordinate Lodge and the Encampment as to the amount of rent to be paid by the Encampment to the Subordinate Lodge, are the members of the Subordinate Lodge, who are also members of the Encampment entitled to vote on the matter in the Subordinate Lodge?

A.—Yes. The fact that a brother belongs to both branches of the Order does not disqualify him from voting in either branch on questions affecting both branches.

70. Q.—Does it require a two-thirds majority of all the members present in a Rebekah Lodge to amend the by-laws, or only a majority?

A.—Only a majority of those present. See 1912—8266.

71. Q.—When an amendment to the by-laws of a Rebekah Lodge is to be acted upon, is the Noble Grand required to notify all the members of the lodge of the time of the proposed action?

A.—No.

72. Q.—Do Trustees have the right to hold money which comes into their hands and use same for the payment of bills, without any action of the lodge.

A.—No. All moneys belonging to the lodge should be paid to the Treasurer and paid out on warrants ordered by the lodge.

73. Q.—Is there any law that would authorize our lodge to reduce the admission fees to five dollars for a short time in order to enable us to compete with other lodges?

A.—No. The General Laws authorize lodges to enact a by-law fixing the minimum fee for admission by initiation at $10.00, but no lodge can legally initiate a member for a less amount.

74. Q.—Can a member of our Rebekah Lodge who lives in this city transfer her membership to another Rebekah Lodge in this city by a Transfer Certificate without changing her residence?

A.—No. A member is entitled to a Transfer Certificate only when she changes her residence.

75. Statement: A member of a lodge located in this state now resides in Nebraska. While in good standing in his lodge he became sick and a Nebraska lodge took charge of him and paid him the benefits due according to his receipt, and also paid for nurse hire the sum of $22.00 without any authority from the brother's lodge. The brother's lodge nurses by watcher, and does not pay nurse hire, and now refuses to refund the amount paid out by the Nebraska lodge for nurse hire, but is willing to pay the benefits.

Q.—Can the Nebraska lodge recover the nurse hire from the brother's lodge?

A.—No. See Sections 172, 173, 176, 178 and 179 Busbee's Digest.

76. Q.—If the left supporter to the Noble Grand in a Rebekah Lodge desires to perform that part in the degree staff in conferring the degree, is she entitled to do so, or can she be set aside against her will and another appointed by the Noble Grand to take the part?

A.—She is entitled to take the part in the degree staff and no one has the right or authority to set her aside against her will and appoint another to the position. See 1905—174.

77. Statement: A brother is a member of a lodge located about 30 miles from where he lives. The last meeting night of his home lodge in the last quarter of 1914 was on December 25th. He mailed a check to the Secretary of his lodge on the 23d of December, which the Secretary claims not to have received, until after the last meeting night in the quarter.

Q.—Was the brother delinquent?

A.—If the letter containing the check was properly addressed to the Secretary, contained the necessary postage and was mailed in time to have been delivered by the United States mails in the regular course of business, before the last meeting night of the quarter, taking into account such delays as might be caused by holidays, and other periods of time where there was no regular mail delivery or when the postoffice was closed, then the brother would not be delinquent; otherwise he would.

[See report of Judiciary Committee. See action of G. L.]

Resolution adopted: "I move to strike out all that part of report No. 10 on page eighteen of the Daily Journal of May 19th, beginning with the word "yes" in the tenth line thereof and all that follows in said report, and insert in lieu thereof the word "No."

78. Q.—Can a Rebekah Lodge place the name of an aged sister on the roll as an honorary member, exempt from dues? Our lodge has been doing this and I want to know if it is legal.

A.—Yes, if she is more than 60 years of age, and has been a contributing member for more than 25 years. See Sec. 284b, Gen. Laws.

V. H. Manifold, P. G., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the Grand Master be referred to committees as follows:

To the Committee on the State of the Order, all matters not otherwise specifically referred.

To the Committee on Grievances and Appeals, the matter in controversy between Lodges 853 and 878.

To the Legislative Committee, "Committee on Revision of General Laws."

To the Committee on Rebekah Degree, references to the "Rebekah Branch", and "The Home." Also monument.

To the Committee on Petitions and Applications, part referring to "Consolidations."

To the Judiciary Committee, parts referring to "Decisions"; General Relief Committee—decision of Grand Sire thereon; and decisions of Grand Master Nos. 1 to 78 inclusive.

Respectively submitted,

V. H. MANIFOLD.

The report of Jesse Macbeth, Deputy Grand Master, was submitted as follows:

REPORT OF DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

As Deputy Grand Master I have approved thirteen sets of by-laws of Subordinate Lodges, ten sets of by-laws for Rebekah Lodges, twenty-seven amendments to Subordinate Lodge by-laws and four amendments to Rebekah Lodge by-laws, and as follows:

21. Monroeville, No. 283, March 25, 1915.
22. Middlefork, No. 810, April 1, 1915.
23. Johnson, No. 76, April 2, 1915.
24. Fayette, No. 31, April 7, 1915.
25. Penn, No. 30, April 16, 1915.
26. Francisco, No. 814, April 23, 1915.
27. Green Oak, No. 600, April 27, 1915.

Amendments (Rebekah).

1. Southeastern, No. 749, March 26, 1915.
2. Unity, No. 21, April 1, 1915.
3. New Harmony, No. 776, April 17, 1915.
4. Mariette, No. 412, April 27, 1915.

In most instances, corrections were made before by-laws or amendments were approved. The by-laws submitted to me from South Milford Lodge, No. 619, and Ashley Lodge, No. 829, were returned with objections, but said lodges have not returned their by-laws to me for approval.

It might be well to make mention of a few defects in by-laws and amendments submitted so that such defects may be obviated. (1) All by-laws and amendments should be type written, printed or written in legible handwriting. Too often they are submitted in poor handwriting and sometimes on very poor paper. (2) By-laws and amendments must be adopted in regular form as provided by the laws of the Order and such fact certified to under seal of the lodge. Too often they are submitted without any certificate and even without the seal of the lodge. If a form of certificate were adopted by the Grand Lodge as suggested by Grand Master J. T. Arbuckle in his report as Deputy Grand Master at the May Session of the Grand Lodge, 1914, this very common defect would be obviated. (3) Many lodges seem to think that they can change their meeting nights by motion upon approval of the Deputy Grand Master, whereas the same formality is required as is necessary in the changing of any other by-law. (4) All lodges should follow closely the form for by-laws found in the General Laws. By doing this, mistakes will be avoided. (5) It is evident that many lodges are using sets of General Laws which are several years old. It is important that all lodges have a sufficient supply of the latest edition of the General Laws on hand at all times for the use and convenience of their members. (6) In the making of by-laws, lodges should provide for bonds for those officers having control of their fiscal affairs as provided in the General Laws. (7) It is important that lodges provide a copy of their by-laws for each of their members. (8) Lodges should be careful in the selection of committees for the revision of by-laws, so that those who are most familiar with the laws of the Order are appointed.

While the examination of the by-laws and amendments has been pleasant, I have found greater pleasure in attending lodge meetings. Aside from numerous meetings attended in Fort Wayne and Allen County, I have had the pleasure of attending lodge functions in the following places: Avilla, December 22, 1914, and January 5 and 12, 1915; South Whitley, January 18; Huntington, January 20; Atlanta, January 22; Geneva, April 9; Terre Haute, April 26; Zanesville, May 12.

Faternally submitted,

JESSE MACBETH,

Deputy Grand Master.

Frank McIlwain, P. G., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

Resolved, That the report of the Deputy Grand Master be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, submitted his report, as follows:

Reports of Lodges.

This completes the eighteenth year, thirty-six successive terms in which there has not been a delinquent lodge. The showing does credit to our 757 lodges.

The first lodges to report were Hackleman, No. 551, Hackleman, December 29, and Ellettsville Lodge, No. 298, Ellettsville, December 31. Although Cardonia Lodge, No. 589, reported on the same date, Indianapolis Lodge, No. 465, Indianapolis, held its installation on the evening of January 1st, and placed its report in my hands on the same date. It was the fifth lodge to report. The last lodges to report were Pisgah Lodge, No. 543, at Augusta, Pike County, March 5th, and Tangier, No. 632, Tangier, Parke County, March 11th.

I am exceedingly anxious to have all reports in earlier. These lodges that inexcusably delay put me to considerable trouble.

Subordinate Lodges Consolidated.

The following subordinate lodges have been consolidated :

Pittsburg Lodge, No. 766, of New Pittsburg, Randolph County, with Jordan Lodge, No. 836, at Jordan, Jay County, February 5, 1915, under name and number of last named lodge.

Morning Star Lodge, No. 7, with Eagle Lodge, No. 579, both of Evansville, Vanderburgh County, February 15, 1915, under number and name of last named lodge.

New Albany Lodge, No. 10, and Hope Lodge, No. 83, both of New Albany, Floyd County, about March 16, 1915, under the name and number of last named lodge.

REBEKAH LODGES AND MEMBERSHIP.

This report was brought up to and printed in my report to the November session of the Grand Lodge and published in the Journal of that session. The showing for the six months beginning in November, is as follows:

Divisions of Lodges by Membership.

The 757 lodges of the State are divided in membership as follows:

- 5 lodges have 10 or less members each.
- 21 lodges have from 11 to 25 members each.
- 136 lodges have from 26 to 50 members each.
- 310 lodges have from 51 to 100 members each.
- 141 lodges have from 101 to 150 members each.
- 57 lodges have from 151 to 200 members each.
- 34 lodges have from 201 to 250 members each.
- 23 lodges have from 251 to 300 members each.
- 22 lodges have from 301 to 400 members each.
- 6 lodges have from 401 to 500 members each.
- 6 lodges have over 500 members each.

Of the group of five lodges first above given, two have 10 each, and one has 7, one 6, and one 5, respectively.

Of the second group of lodges—21 in all, having from 11 to 25 each—two have 11, one 12, one 14, one 15, one 16, two 17, one 18, two 20, two 21, one 22, one 23, one 24, and five 25 each. Some few of this group are new lodges and will grow; others are old enough to have established themselves more firmly. I wish we could devise some method to put them on a more secure foundation.

Dedications.

The new building of Arbutus Lodge, No. 869, at Clear Creek, Monroe County, was dedicated May 2d. W. H. Leedy, G. M.; J. T. Arbuckle, G. Marshal; Chas. Thomas, G. W.; A. Hinds, G. C.; W. H. Beeler, G. H.; A. R. Burch, G. G.; W. Russ, A. O. Henry, Brother Merker and Brother Coffee, Grand Heralds. Brother ————— was chairman of the Building Committee. The staff, except the Grand Master and Grand Marshal, were from Cecelia Lodge, No. 166, Bloomington, and gave the work splendidly. The building was erected at a cost of $2,500.00 and is well planned and creditable in all its arrangements.

Other dedications, I am informed, have taken place, but no report of them has been made to this office.

Called Home.

After an active life of exceeding ninety years, Brother M. Richards Muckle died at his home in Philadelphia, Pa., March 30th last. He was Grand Treasurer of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, succeeding Brother Isaac Shepherd in 1895. For about sixty years, also, he was Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. He was, during the life of the late George W. Childs, associated with him as confidential manager in the publication of the Philadelphia Ledger.

Brother Wm. L. Kuykendall, Past Grand Sire, passed away at the home of his son in Denver, Colo., in the same month. His home was at Saratoga, Wyoming, where he had located in pioneer days, and was a moving spirit in the early citizenship of that territory and state. He was Grand Sire in 1909-1910, preceding our Brother Cockrum in that position. He had been a continuous member of the Sovereign Grand Lodge for about thirty-five years.

Mrs. John B. Goodwin, wife of Brother Goodwin, P. G. S. and Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, entered the land of sweet peace, from her home in Baltimore, Md., January 25, last. She was of the gentle, kindly, sympathetic nature that endeared her to all. The saddened and desolate heart and home of the Order's Grand Secretary deeply appeals to the sympathy of the Order universal.

Excursion and Dedication.

It is my pleasure to advise you that with the co-operation of the Grand Master, President of the Assembly and others, I have completed arrangements for an excursion to the Home at Greensburg this Wednesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock, and at 4:00 o'clock the dedication of the monument recently erected through the gifts of the subordinate and Rebekah lodges of the State. The excursion will reach the Home at 2:00 o'clock. At 4:00 o'clock the members, under escort of a band, will march to the cemetery, where appropriate ceremonies will be held in unveiling and dedicating the beautiful but modest monument erected to the memory of the Home guests who have gone on before and sleep there. The Grand Officers of the several branches of the Order will have charge. The address will be delivered by Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, former Vice-President, who is a member of Indianapolis Lodge, No. 465. It is hoped there will be a very large attendance of members on this interesting occasion.

Our Grand Master.

As Grand Master, Brother Arbuckle is giving us a splendid service and while he may not thank me for so doing midway of his administration, I feel it a pleasure to refer to it. When he assumed the duties of office, he practically laid aside affairs of his own, to devote active attention to those of the Order. Brother Arbuckle took hold with determination and earnestness. There ought to be good results from his efforts—indeed if there are not, it will be no fault of his. With the President of the Assembly, Sister Clark, and the Grand Patriarch, Brother Fulling, he has held Round Table Meetings in many sections of the state, and these with other meetings, correspondence and other Grand Lodge matters, have kept him very busy. It is a great credit to our Order to have members that make sacrifices, such as he has and is making, for its harmony and prosperity.

Conclusion.

Our year of 1914, with an increase of 502 in membership, is closed. In one particular there is cause for regret; in others, for congratulation. Due to business depression and political disturbances, but more directly to lack of personal interest and application, the increase has not been large. I hope you will find it possible for an effective appeal to our membership, in this particular. In practical usefulness, relief, benefits, and financial growth, the year is one of the best Indiana has had. I hope that every lodge and member will renew their efforts, that all departments of our work may be maintained to the highest possible standard.

I trust that this semi-annual session will result in great benefit to the Order and in extreme pleasure to each one of you in attendance.

The Building Committee submitted its semiannual report as follows:

REPORT OF BUILDING COMMITTEE.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Brothers—Since your November session, the Building Committee has held two sessions and will hold a third the present week. We have disposed of the matters referred to us as follows:

No. 21. This application of Milton Lodge, No. 111, Milton, Wayne County, was for the lodge to have permission to buy and remodel a brick building at a contemplated expenditure of $2,000. Present resources, $2,150, with no indebtedness. Members, 88. Annual income, $667. Action of committee favorable.

No. 22. Arcadia Lodge, No. 367, Arcadia, Hamilton County, desired consent to construct an addition, 34x40 feet, to its present lodge building, at an expenditure of $2,500. Membership, 205. Resources, $8,500. Total income, $1,675. Action favorable.

No. 23. Bethel Lodge, No. 731, of Bethel (Stout), Delaware County, having lost its property by fire, asked permission to rebuild at a cost of $2,300. Information was so indefinite, action was postponed.

No. 24. Ashboro Lodge, No. 251, of Ashboro, Clay County, petitioned to rebuild, its property having been lost by fire, at a cost of $1,600, creating a debt of $600, payable $100 each year, with 7 per cent. interest. Action favorable.

No. 25. Dunfee Lodge, No. 765, of Dunfee, Allen County, was authorized to expend $200 in construction of an addition.

No. 26. Kossuth Lodge, No. 81, Somerset, Wabash County, having lost its building by fire, by action of the lodge, purchased a lot for the construction of a new building. Objection to the purchase was made by some of the members, who wanted to rebuild on the old site. The committee ruled that it was not within its province to determine controversies of this character.

No. 27. Blue River Lodge, No. 412, Fredericksburg, Washington County, owns a building and ground free of debt. Two sister fraternal orders owned lots adjoining. It was proposed by the sister organizations that No. 412 join them in erecting a building to cover the three lots under triple ownership. The committee expressed the opinion that such an arrangement was inadvisable.

No. 28. Dupont Lodge, No. 466, Dupont, Jefferson County, made application for permission to erect a new building at a cost of $3,000. Membership, 81. Resources, $3,160.45. Permission was given to erect a building at a cost not to exceed $3,000, and incur an indebtedness of not to exceed $1,500.

No. 29. New Harmony Lodge, No. 87, New Harmony, Posey County, petitioned for permission to build a lodge building on lots on which present inadequate and old building is located. Resources of lodge, $9,867.80. Cost of proposed building, $9,000; indebtedness when completed, $5,000. Action of committee was favorable.

In one instance when plans were submitted, the committee was able to make practical suggestions as to the arrangements of the lodge room and anterooms that were valuable to the lodge and were accepted with appreciation.

The report of the Home Directors was submitted and referred to the Committee on the Degree of Rebekah, as follows:

REPORT OF HOME DIRECTORS.

To the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

I herewith submit the annual reports of the Board of Directors, Superintendent and Physician of our Home, from October 1, 1913, to September 30, 1914, and would further supplement them with the semi-annual reports showing the conditions during the past six months. In May, 1914, Grand Master W. M. Nauer reappointed Bro. W. H. Bradshaw to represent that branch of the Order on the Home Board, making no change in the Board.

There seems nothing to report at this time, since everything has gone along so smoothly. The Home has been placed in an excellent condition; all of the hospital interior has been re-decorated, also the main halls and many of the rooms in the other buildings. Each six months seems to bring the Home to a higher standard of perfection—if I may use that word—and there has been scarce a ripple to destroy the smooth surface of peace and happiness. All have worked harmoniously to gain that end.

In the selection of our Superintendent and Assistant, Brother and Sister Lockhart, we are highly favored. They are deeply concerned in every matter affecting the Home and their labors are well directed, and in all respects complete and successful.

Applications for admission to the Home have received our prompt and careful attention; and all cases when not in conflict with the Rules, have been admitted.

With the exception of some minor illness that childish flesh is heir to, the health of the children is excellent and we are proud to again call your attention to the fact that not a death has occurred among the children since the opening of the Home fifteen years ago. We feel this fact worthy of record, for a low death rate bespeaks careful diet, regular habits and proper sanitation. The old brothers and sisters who come to us are afflicted, and disease has already laid its hand upon them; but with careful nursing many of them live to enjoy the comforts and pleasures of the Home for years.

There have been many nice donations made to the Home in the past six months, for which we are very thankful; a list of these you will find in the Superintendent's report.

In January, 1910, a donation of twenty-one dollars ($21.00) was received from Indianapolis Lodge, No. 465, with the suggestion that it be used as a starter for an Endowment Fund. Thereupon the Board of Directors adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That all donations from lodges or individuals, unless specifically named for some purpose; all money or property turned over to the Home Association by guests when admitted, shall be placed in a fund, that shall be known as the I. O. O. F. Home Endowment Fund. To this fund may be added at any time any bequest of money or property; that any person or persons may desire to make. This fund shall be invested in a manner that the Board from time to time may direct, and the principal shall not be drawn upon for any purpose, unless it may become necessary to use it for the maintenance of the Home." In five years this gift of $21.00 has grown to $23,463.99, a fact of which we are justly proud.

The Home pictures have been shown in many cities and towns. Donations of a part of the proceeds and often all of it, have been made to the Endowment Fund. These pictures were not made for a money making scheme, but to bring the Home to those who had not seen it, and acquaint them with the grand work that Odd Fellowship is doing for their unfortunate brothers, their wives, widows and helpless orphans. Much interest has been shown, and we believe great good will follow this part of the work.

My work is almost completed, as my term expires with the close of this fiscal year. I have attended every regular meeting of the Board; and hope that health and strength will be given me to attend all the meetings to the close. I have given my sincere and undivided attention as secretary; and want to thank the officers of the Home Board who elected me to this office, thus giving me the opportunity to come in closer touch with the lodges of the State, and a better understanding of our Home. These three years will be treasured by me as priceless, on account of coming closer into the workings of Odd Fellowship; in exalting its virtues of Friendship, Love and Truth; in becoming more closely allied with the officers of this beautiful and most worthy Order, who have ever been ready to assist me with kind words of encouragement. I desire to express my sincere thanks to Sister Nichols, who gave me the appointment, and will ever feel grateful to her. I shall always be interested in the Home, ever thoughtful of the helpless ones of our Order, and ever ready to help maintain the high standard of our Home, the pride of Indiana Odd Fellowship.

A full financial report is made at the close of the fiscal year, which is November 1st, of each year, showing all the business transactions, and we call your attention particularly to the reports of the Vice-President, Superintendent and Physician. Through these reports you may learn better than in any other way of the splendid work that Odd Fellowship is doing in caring for the sick and relieving distress.

In closing let me urge you to visit the Home; see the care given to all the guests, hear their words of appreciation and observe the bright, clean and happy children, who will in the near future be our citizens, followers and emulators of Odd Fellowship. Inspect the beautiful and well-kept buildings, grounds, farm and live stock; in them reflects the virtues of our Order; and no member can help reaping benefits from such a visit.

Fraternally submitted,

KATIE E. BARNETT,

Secretary Board of Directors Odd Fellows Home.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

GREENSBURG, IND., April 30, 1915.

To the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows Home:

The semiannual period in the work of the Home is again here. As the days come and go, our work of love and benefaction in behalf of the unfortunate of our Order becomes more and more extended. As the aged residents, one by one, pass from our jurisdiction to that eternal lodge above, or the children leave us to return to their former homes or to the homes of loving foster parents. still others come to take their places, thus keeping our enrollment up to the maximum all the time. While the total enrollment is slightly less at this time than the number reported at a previous report, the number of aged residents enrolled is greater by two than ever before. The following tabulation will give you a concise idea of the movement of population during the past six months:

Enrolled September 30, 1914..... 135

Admissions—

Adults (new admissions).....	23
Adults readmitted	2
Children received	12
Children returned from homes.....	6
Total	43
Total number in Home during the half year.....	178

Decrease—

By deaths—adults	10
By dismissal—adults	5
Children placed	4
Children returned to parents.....	9
Total decrease	28
Total enrolled	150

Enrolled at present time—

Men	69
Women	40
Boys	32
Girls	9
Total enrolled	150

The number of deaths recorded during this period is seemingly quite large, which, however, is not at all strange when it is considered that the winter months are included in this period. An unusual amount of sickness prevailed throughout the winter and early spring; however, the greater part of this has now cleared away and the general health of our family is quite satisfactory at the present time. An epidemic of the mumps now exists among the children, but there have been no serious complications. Since my last report the following have answered the call of the Great Reaper:

James Bankhead, October 19, 1914.

Robert H. Lake, October 20, 1914.

Bohan Julian, November 4, 1914.

Lemuel B. Dailey, November 7, 1914.

Eliza Cole, December 18, 1914.

Richard L. Shilling, December 22, 1914.

Amelia Kevil, January 10, 1915.

Joseph Myers, January 16, 1915.

Alex Growf, January 25, 1915.

William Berenshausen, February 13, 1915.

Never was the Home more beautiful, apparently, than it is this spring. The broad lawns, green and velvety, the symmetrical trees with their abundant and beautiful foliage, surrounding the Home buildings, give it a charm and attractiveness that thrills the heart of every Odd Fellow who is fortunate enough to see it at this season of the year. The physical condition of the buildings, inside and out, is in harmony with their beautiful surroundings—fresh, clean and neat at all times, great care being taken that all repairs are made as needed. The painting and decorating of the interior of the hospital and many rooms in the other buildings this spring has greatly improved their appearance as well as sanitary conditions.

The farm and garden work is well advanced, the weather conditions this spring having been much in our favor. In our orchard work we have the valuable assistance and guidance of Purdue specialists and of our county agricultural agent, and an attempt is being made to manage our orchard in the most improved and scientific manner. The heavy bloom this spring indicates an abundant harvest of fruit.

Our children are just completing a most successful year's work in the public schools of Greensburg. With but very few exceptions all have made excellent progress in their studies, their work comparing most favorably with that of their classmates who come from the very best private home surroundings. Once again, and for the third time in the history of our Home, one of our family of children, Raymond Kautz, is completing the high school course with high honors, and his graduation will take place Thursday, May 20. The Home management, and in fact all Indiana Odd Fellowship, well may feel proud of the accomplishments of this young man, and happy to know they have had so vital a part in his education and training for his future life.

As a culmination of my suggestion made to the Rebekah Assembly two years ago, a handsome and imposing monument now marks the final resting place of the departed ones of our family in South Park cemetery, and its dedication during the forthcoming sessions of the Grand bodies, thus completing the work, is a matter of gratification to all, as it was certainly a much needed improvement.

Before closing this statement of the Home work for this half-year, I wish to acknowledge my gratitude to you, the members of the Board of Directors, for your kindly advice and sympathetic encouragement, and to again pledge to you on behalf of Mrs. Lockhart and myself our further hearty co-operation for the success of our work and the cause so dear to the hearts of us all.

Fraternally submitted in F., L. and T.,

CHAS. E. LOCKHART,

Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

GREENSBURG, IND., April 30, 1915.

To the Board of Directors of the I. O. O. F. Home of Indiana:

This, my semiannual report, covers the period from October 1, 1914, to March 31, 1915.

While I am called upon to report more than the usual number of deaths for the same period, yet they were all aged and died from incurable diseases. Ten guests have answered the roll call, four having died as the result of senility, one from organic disease of heart, one from cancer of face, one from hypostatic pneumonia, one from pulmonary tuberculosis, one from arteriosclerosis, and one from pernicious anæmia, seven of those dying being past eighty years, one ninety-two, and the youngest, sixty-one. Have made ninety-three regular and twenty special visits during this period. The children have been especially free from sickness, no epidemic of any kind appearing. This uniformly good health of the children surely speaks well for the careful care and attention that is given them. The general health of the aged has been good, aside from several cases of la grippe during the winter months.

Respectfully submitted,

D. E. DOUGLAS, M. D.

The following reports from committees were submitted and laid over till tomorrow for consideration:

[No. 7.]

W. E. Deupree, P. G., from the Committee on Judiciary, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, beg leave to report:

We have examined decisions numbered 69 to 76, inclusive, also 78, and find them correct and recommend that they be approved.

[No. 8.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, beg leave to make the following report: We have examined No. 68, the query of which is, Can a brother be tried on a copy of charges, and if a trial is had on a copy of charges, would it be legal? If not why not? The answer should be yes, if the original charges are lost or destroyed and a certified copy, certified to be by the Noble Grand and Secretary, under the Seal of the Lodge can be produced. The Grand Lodge Laws, Section 215, General Law 1915, provide that, "The rules of the civil law shall apply to and control in the conduct of trials and admission of evidence, whenever the code is silent; the civil laws provide that when an indictment or affidavit is lost, a trial may be had on a certified copy and we recommend that the same be approved.

[No. 9.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, beg leave to present the following report: We have examined decisions numbered 58 to 67 inclusive and find them correct and we recommend that they be approved.

[No. 10.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, beg leave to report: We have examined decisions Number 32 and 77, the statement of 77 being, A brother is a member of a Lodge located about 30 miles from where he lives. The last meeting night of his home Lodge in the last quarter of 1914, was on December 25th. He mailed a check to the Secretary of his Lodge on the 23rd of December, which the Secretary claims not to have received until after the last meeting night in the quarter. Query, was the brother delinquent? The answer is yes. The burden is on the brother to pay his dues to the Secretary, on or before the last meeting night in the quarter and if he fails to do so, he becomes delinquent, upon such failure. The answer to Number 32, is the same and we recommend that the same be adopted.

[No. 11.]

John F. LaFollette, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred a memorial from Star in the West Lodge, No. 159, I. O. O. F., of LaGrange, Indiana, inquiring the duty of said lodge relative to a member of said lodge now in the Northern Indiana Hospital for the Insane at Logansport, Indiana, beg to report that under the law there is nothing before this committee to require its determination at this time.

[No. 12.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the Grand Master's decisions numbered from 33 to 47, inclusive, and from 53 to 57, inclusive, beg leave to report that we have carefully examined the same and believe them to be correct and recommend that they be approved.

[No. 13.]

Philip Zoercher, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, having under consideration question and answer No. 25, which read as follows:

25. Statement: A brother Odd Fellow dies in good standing in his lodge. Three years later his widow dies in good standing in the Rebekah Lodge. The oldest son was appointed administrator of the father's estate, same not yet being fully settled. The Subordinate and Rebekah lodges paid to the son the funeral benefits for both, which he paid for nurse hire. There has been another party appointed administrator of the widow's estate, and he demands funeral benefits from the lodge for both—

Q.—Was the money misappropriated?

A.—Yes, by the son as administrator. It should have been paid on the funeral expenses.

beg leave that the answer should be amended to read as follows:

A.—Yes, if the son did not pay the funeral expenses. The Relief Committee of the lodge of which the deceased was a member is enjoined to see that the amount appropriated for funeral expenses be used for this purpose and this purpose only, and the payment of funeral expenses to an administrator does not meet that requirement unless it be shown that the administrator has really paid the funeral expenses. See Grand Lodge Proceedings 1911, page 7671.

[No. 14.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, beg leave to report that we have examined decisions numbered 16 to 18, 20 to 24, 26 to 32, and 48 to 53, inclusive, and find them to be correct.

[No. 15.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, having under consideration question and answer No. 19, which is as follows:

"19. Q.—Can a financial secretary hold the position of installing officer?

A.—No, because he is one of the officers to be installed and he can not install himself."

beg leave to report that the answer be amended to read as follows:

A.—Not at the January installation, because he is one of the officers to be installed, and he can not install himself; but at the July installation he can hold the position of installing officer if he is a duly qualified Past Grand. See Sections 25 and 31 of the General Laws, 1915.

[No. 16.]

H. E. Jones, P. G., from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's and Grand Secretary's report relating to the consolidation of the following lodges:

Arsene Rebekah Lodge, No. 755, with Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 407, East Chicago.

Pittsburg Lodge, No. 766, with Jordan Lodge, No. 836.

Morning Star Lodge, No. 7, with Eagle Lodge, No. 579.

New Albany Lodge, No. 10, with Hope Lodge, No. 83.

would recommend that the action of the Grand Master authorizing such consolidations be approved.

[No. 17.]

John W. Cooper, P. G. Rep., from the Memorial Committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Memorial Committee, submit the following report:

“Leaves have their time to fall
And flowers to wither with the north wind’s breath,
The stars to set—but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O Death.”

The dark winged messenger of death entered the home of the Grand Secretary, Brother John B. Goodwin, in the city of Baltimore on the 25th day of January, 1915, and removed his wife to that realm which is the abode of the angels and abounding in universal peace and concord.

She was a woman whose influence for good predominated in her social and domestic life. Her influence in the affairs of life was a characteristic of the best found in womanhood. She was one who exercised her talents for the good of humanity and she made her life to be a benison for happiness and universal fidelity to the Christian life. Her personality was such as to win the friendship of those in whose presence she mingled. She took a practical course in life, and the world is better for it. Discouragements she doubtless met as best she could and conquered them as best she knew, ever with patience and fortitude. She rejoiced in the achievements of her husband and gloried in his success.

In her passing her husband will rejoice in the memory of her, which is all he has left of the gracious joys of a blissful union.

We deeply sympathize with him in his great sorrow. On occasions of this kind the sentiments of regret can give but little influence in assuaging the wounds of death. May he be enabled to bear his afflictions with such resignation as the Father of us all shall bestow.

[No. 18.]

C. K. Runyon, P. G., from the Committee on Rebekah Degree, submitted the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary’s report “Rebekah Lodges and Membership,” note that in the past six months there has been one lodge instituted, while there has been a loss of four—three by defunct and one by consolidation—making a loss in the number of lodges during the term of three.

We also find that in the membership during the term there were nineteen hundred and ten brothers admitted, while the abatements were nineteen hundred and sixty-six, or a loss of brothers for the term of fifty-six, which we regret to see, as we feel the brothers should be more loyal to this degree.

We also note there were three thousand five hundred and ninety-three sisters admitted, while the abatements were three thousand three hundred and eight, being a gain of two hundred and eighty-five sisters for the term, the membership at present being forty-seven thousand one hundred and eighty-six.

[No. 19.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report, "Rebekah Lodges Defunct," and the surrendering of the charters of Waynetown Rebekah Lodge, No. 551, Waynetown, Montgomery County, March 2, 1915; Griffin Rebekah Lodge, No. 738, Griffin, Posey County, May 7, 1915; Oliver Rebekah Lodge, No. 746, Oliver, Posey County, May 7, 1915, while we regret the loss of these lodges we recommend that the action of the Grand Master in taking up the charters be approved by this Grand Lodge.

[No. 20.]

Frank McIlwain, from the same committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred a certain communication from O. D. Whilton, Noble Grand of Anderson Lodge, No. 131, relating to the practice of placing children in private homes, after a careful consideration of the subject, find that the Grand Lodge has no jurisdiction in the matter, and recommend that the communication be referred to the Home Board.

[No. 21.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report wherein it was set out that Arsene Lodge, No. 755, of Indiana Harbor, had been consolidated with Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 407, East Chicago, both of Lake County under name and number of Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 407, have carefully considered the same and recommend that the Grand Master's action therein be approved.

[No. 22.]

Harry C. Ray, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred the following portion of the Grand Master's report relative to the Rebekah branch of Odd Fellowship, viz.: "The Rebekah branch of our Order is doing splendid work for Odd Fellowship in Indiana, and is in a reasonably prosperous condition, but I feel that the subordinate members are not giving to the Rebekahs the support and encouragement which they deserve, and which the best interests of the Order demand. More of the subordinate members should join the Rebekah Lodge and thus not only help the Rebekah Lodges but also help the Order as a whole, for I feel confident that there is no one thing which is more needed by the Rebekah Lodges of Indiana at this time than the loyal support of the subordinate members. Sister Clark, President of the Rebekah Assembly, and the other Assembly officers are doing magnificent work for Rebekah Odd Fellowship and certainly the Order is elevated and inspired by their noble work, and if they had the support of our membership, which they deserve and should have, there is no reason why this jurisdiction should not again stand first in membership of the jurisdictions of the world."

We, your committee, therefore desire to strongly indorse and approve the Grand Master's timely words relating to the Rebekah branch of our Order, and commend them to the careful consideration of our subordinate membership.

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relative to Rebekah lodges instituted as follows:

Whitley Lodge, No. 791, Churubusco, Whitley County,

Maumee Lodge, No. 792, Maumee, Jackson County,

Thelma Lodge, No. 793, Boonville, Warrick County, would respectfully report that they have examined the same, and would recommend that the Grand Master's action in granting the prayer of said petitions and issuing charters therefor, be in all things affirmed.

[No. 24.]

J. Frank Mann, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Rebekah Committee, to which was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "The Home" and "The Monument," and also the report of the Home Board, the Superintendent's report and the Home physician's report, find nothing therein which will require the action of this Grand Lodge.

[No. 25.]

Also the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Rebekah Committee, to which was referred the communication from Rockfield Lodge, No. 301, relative to the rejection by the Home Board of the petition for admission to the Home by that lodge of one of their members, Bro. Chas. H. Thompson, respectfully report that we have considered the matter and recommend that the Grand Lodge request the Home Board to again investigate the condition of Brother Thompson and ascertain whether he is a fit and proper person to be admitted to the Home as alleged by the lodge, and that the Grand Secretary be instructed to send a copy of this report to the Secretary of the Home Board.

[No. 26.]

John H. Goodknight, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Rebekah Committee, to whom was referred certain communications from G. W. Hall, an expelled member of Jackson Center Lodge, No. 769, and a letter from the Secretary of that lodge, in which serious charges are made against the management of the Home at Greensburg, report that we have considered the matter carefully. We do not have the time, nor are we the proper body, to investigate such charges. We are of the opinion, however, that complaints of brothers who assist in maintaining the Home, should be given due consideration by the proper board, and to this end we recommend that the allegations in the communication of said G. W. Hall be investigated. Article twelve (12) of the Articles of Association under which the Home is operated, provides that the Grand Master, the Grand Patriarch and President of the Rebekah Assembly, shall be an "Advisory Committee" for the purpose of "investigating the conditions and necessities of the Home and the comfort and welfare of the inmates." In our opinion the communication of Mr. Hall should be referred to said Advisory Committee, with instructions to promptly investigate the charges therein made, and we so recommend.

On motion, the Grand Lodge adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

Thursday, May 20, 1915, 9:00 a. m.

The Grand Lodge met at 9:00 a. m. pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master J. T. Arbuckle presiding.

After singing the opening ode, and prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, declared the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

The roll of Grand Officers was called and noted present as follows:

J. T. ARBUCKLE, Grand Master.
JESSE MACBETH, Deputy Grand Master.
A. A. SPEARS, Grand Warden.
W. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary.
F. T. McQUIDDY, Assisant Grand Secretary.
W. A. MORRIS, Grand Treasurer.
REV. A. J. CARY, Grand Chaplain.
EDWIN FARRER, Grand Instructor.
H. C. BRETHAUER, Grand Conductor.
WILL C. EHRHARDT, Grand Marshal.
J. S. SMITH, Grand Guardian.
JACOB GOLDMAN, Grand Herald.
L. W. DURBIN, Assistant Grand Guardian.
E. W. NASH, Assistant Grand Herald.
E. G. HOGATE, Grand Trustee.
BENJ. FRANKLIN, Grand Trustee.
M. A. CHIPMAN, Grand Trustee.

On motion of W. A. Morris, Grand Treasurer, the reading of the minutes of yesterday's session was dispensed with, the same having been printed and circulated.

Geo. Shirts, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Grievances and Appeals, made the following report, which was considered and adopted, with applause:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals begs to report that by constitutional amendment in 1844 the Committee on Grievances was first established by this Grand Lodge. Immediately thereafter the usefulness of the committee became apparent and cases were submitted to it in considerable number from the very time of its creation. For many years thereafter the laws of the Order in this jurisdiction were meager and crude; there was no code of trials, and cases were presented and tried and record thereof made in the lodges in a very uncertain and unsatisfactory way, and the meting out of substantial justice in the Grand Lodge thereby became more and more difficult. In order to improve this situation in 1890 there was a thorough revision of our laws, and, for the first time, a complete trial code was adopted. For quite a while prior to 1890, the general average of cases before this committee at each session was about 25. Thus, in May, 1885, there were 23; November, 1886, 29; May, 1888, 26; November, 1889, 28, and in May, 1890, 29. But, after the adoption of our laws in 1890, there was a general and steady decline in the number of cases which came to this committee; in May 1891, 15; May 1893, 16; May 1909, 6; May 1910, 11; May 1911, 3, and November 1911, 12.

Since the first case submitted to the Grievance Committee in 1846, one hundred and thirty-eight sessions of the Grand Lodge have come and gone, and at each session there have been cases for the consideration of this committee; but the May session, 1915, must go down in the history of our Order in this jurisdiction with the surprising and gratifying fact that not a single case is before us for determination. Much of this is due, we think, to the splendid condition of our laws and processes; but we believe we can also say with truth that no inconsiderable part is due to a higher development of the finer and nobler qualities of our membership, among whom the desire to do right and to approximate the Golden Rule has steadily and surely grown.

When a great Order like ours can assemble at its sovereign meeting in the State and find that all its inferior courts are closed for want of business, then indeed can we say we are at peace and showing forth in practice the tenets of our Order.

We should add to what we have said that the present result has been made possible by the tact and wisdom of our executive officers, particularly the present Grand Master and his predecessor, for a lodge suit wisely prevented is better than a case tried and won.

A. W. Beehler, P. G., from the Committee on Credentials, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your committee, to whom was referred the credentials of certain Past Grands and Representatives, have examined the following, and would recommend that they be admitted:

† Present first day's session.

Whereupon all the foregoing named Past Grands and Representatives, except those whose names are followed by an asterisk (*), were instructed in the Grand Lodge Degree and Past Grand's Degree by A. A. Spears, Grand Warden, and admitted to membership.

E. G. Hogate, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was organized August 14, 1837, and is now seventy-eight years old. The printed records of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge are practically the history of Odd Fellowship in Indiana. These proceedings are embraced in 23 bound volumes of practically 800 pages each, and all the unbound proceedings since 1911, which will make four more bound volumes.

No jurisdiction in the Order, perhaps, has a more interesting history than Indiana—rich in the works designed by the objects for which we are organized—and yet most of us in the State know very little of that history. Would it not be a proper and useful thing that such a history should be written, that all members of the Order who so desire may read and have knowledge of the course of Odd Fellowship in this State? Therefore

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, to serve without pay, for the purpose of compiling the data from which to write a history of the Order in the State; or that such committee compile the data and write such history.

The Grand Master appointed the following committee in accordance therewith:

E. G. Hogate, Past Grand Representative.

Jno. F. Wallick, Past Grand Representative.

Will H. Talbot, Past Grand Representative.

J. R. Andrews, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Tuscarora Lodge, No. 699, for permission to solicit aid from sister lodges, respectfully report that we have carefully considered the merits of said petition and recommend that it be granted.

H. E. Jones, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the application of Kossuth Lodge, No. 81, to solicit aid from sister lodges, respectfully report that after having the matter under careful consideration, we recommend that the petition be granted.

D. L. Martindale, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Springtown Lodge, No. 611, to solicit aid from sister lodges, respectfully report that, after careful consideration, we recommend that said petition be not granted.

Geo. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered, and, after discussion by Bros. W. H. Talbott, G. P. Bornwasser, V. H. Manifold, Edwin Farrer, and others, a vote was taken and the report of the committee was adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report referring to delinquencies, respectfully submit the following:

The loss from nonpayment of dues is indeed a great drain upon our Order, and while we have the effect we have so far been unable to find a successful remedy. We endorse the words of our Grand Master: "If the members and lodges will do half as much work to retain a worthy member who may become delinquent as they do to get new members, our loss would not be so heavy." We firmly believe that the financial secretaries can be a prime factor in relieving this drain, if they would realize that they best serve the lodge by combining Friendship and Love with their duties.

G. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., announced to the Grand Lodge that on the 17th of June Sister Lorena Albro will retire from the position she has held for nine years in the office of the Grand Secretary, she intending to be married at that time. As a recognition of her excellent and faithful service to the Grand Lodge he moved that a committee of two be appointed to procure and present to Sister Albro a suitable wedding present.

The motion was adopted by a unanimous vote, and the Grand Master appointed as said committee Geo. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., and H. F. Fulling, G. P.

G. P. Bornwasser, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to re-instatements, submit the following:

We heartily endorse the action of the Grand Master in granting permission to Shawswick Lodge, No. 177, to reinstate Brother Tinchier to membership, and commend the lodge for requesting the same. In so doing, it is practicing one of the great principles of Odd Fellowship, tempering justice with mercy. We should not forget that there was more rejoicing over the one lost lamb that returned to the fold, than over the ninety-nine that went not astray.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred the conclusion of the Grand Secretary's report, submit the following:

While our gain has only been 502 members, we should not feel discouraged. All business has suffered. But, as Brother Leedy has said, in practical usefulness, relief, benefits and financial growth we have exceeded all former years, showing that the principles of our Order are not affected by business depression or war, but goes on and on until distress has no want to relieve or sorrow tears to dry.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of Grand Secretary's report entitled "Our Grand Master," submit the following:

Brother Leedy is undoubtedly right when he tells us that Brother Arbuckle is giving us splendid service. We can see it ourselves, but we are perfectly willing to take "Bill's" word for it anyway. In unity there is strength and in a strong combination like Sister Clark and Brothers Arbuckle and Fulling, working hand in hand to promote the principles of our Order, there will be good results, and we feel sure that the sacrifices they have made will not be in vain.

Chas. H. Allison, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "District Deputies", beg leave to report that we have carefully considered this report and heartily endorse the position taken by the Grand Master.

The faithful and zealous District Deputies are of inestimable value and benefit to the Order in their respective districts, while the inactive and inefficient ones are an actual hindrance.

The Grand Master should put forth every effort to increase efficiency among the District Deputies.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled, "Averages, Deductions, etc.," have duly considered the same and find that this is one of the many splendid and interesting features of the Grand Secretary's report. By these statements and tables the membership may obtain a comprehensive idea of the workings, growth, and achievements of our noble Order.

Philip Diels, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to "District Deputy Conferences," have considered the same and respectfully report that these conferences have no doubt been of benefit to the Order, and will be the means of forming a closer relationship between the Grand Officers, and the increasing of the membership, and we recommend that they be continued.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled, "Reports of Lodges", beg leave to report that it is a source of gratification to note that there were no delinquent lodges during the last term, and recommend that lodges be urged to send in their reports promptly.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled, "Conclusion", would respectfully report that this Grand Lodge heartily endorses the work done by our Grand Master, and that he shall certainly have our loyal support, and that this Grand Lodge pledges itself to do its share in advancing the interests of the Order in the closing term of his office.

Chas. H. Allison, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Secretary's report entitled, "Statistical", "Lodges", and "Membership", beg to report that we have carefully examined this report and find it correct, concise and comprehensive.

It shows careful, painstaking work on the part of our Grand Secretary, which we wish to most heartily commend.

We regret to note a loss in membership during the last term, but on the whole he reports the Order to be in a splendid condition and a total gain of 502 for the last year.

Joe A. DeHority, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report entitled "Veterans' Jewels and Buttons" are pleased to note that many members entitled thereto have availed themselves of these jewels and buttons.

We earnestly hope that all members entitled will procure these jewels and buttons.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Master's report entitled, "The Talisman," have carefully considered the same and most heartily endorse the commendation therein.

We believe this publication to be worthy of the support of every member of this Order. So much information of value is contained in this publication, that it is of interest and instructive to all members.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee of the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the report of our Grand Master entitled, "Billy Leedy," desire to submit the following:

We heartily endorse the words of the Grand Master with reference to our Grand Secretary. Not alone has the Grand Master learned to lean on the strong arm of Brother Leedy, but all members of our Order have availed themselves of the opportunity of taking both troubles and pleasures to him, and who in turn joins hands with the bearer either in trials or pleasures.

May we have with us for many years to come Brother Leedy, on whom to lean and with whom to advise.

The hour for the Special Order, the nomination of Grand Officers, having arrived, the following nominations were made:

For Grand Master—

JESSE MACBETH, of No. 19.

For Deputy Grand Master—

A. A. SPEARS, of No. 215.

For Grand Warden—

J. F. CARMICHAEL, of No. 96.

PHILIP ZOERCHER, of No. 206.

L. W. DURBIN, of No. 658.

W. E. DEUPREE, of No. 76.

WILL C. EHRHART, of No. 103.

JACOB GOLDMAN, of No. 677.

LEANDER LIVEZEY, of No. 59.

HARRY C. BARNETT, of No. 67.

EDWARD HAVERLY, of No. 242.

For Grand Secretary—

W. H. LEEDY, of No. 465.

E. E. PRYOR, of No. 274.

For Grand Treasurer—

W. A. MORRIS, of No. 108.

For Grand Trustee—

BENJ. FRANKLIN, of No. 44.

For Grand Representative for one year—

J. T. ARBUCKLE, of No. 35.

H. A. Winterrowd, P. G., offered the following resolution, which was laid over until next Communication, under the rules.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Be it Resolved, That Section 66 of the general provisions of the General Laws of 1915, page 37, be amended to read as follows:

The Grand Master shall receive the sum of two thousand dollars per year for his expenses, which sum shall be in full of all claims of said officer growing out of his term of service, and that he give all of his time to Odd Fellowship.

H. A. Winterrowd, P. G., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Relief," beg to report: This is one of the fundamental principles of Odd Fellowship. To relieve the distressed is indeed an act worthy of all men. This report shows in part what the Order is doing to help alleviate the brothers in distress. We commend our Grand Secretary, and ask this Grand Lodge to join with this committee in thanking Brother Leedy for giving us these statistical reports.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report referring to "Meetings," have carefully considered the subject. We find that Webster defines the word "meeting" as a coming together, an assembly, such as we have here today. And as our great Order teaches us to cultivate the social as well as the fraternal relation of this life, therefore, to be sociable, we must hold such a meeting as Webster defines. Undoubtedly these meetings held by our Grand Officers have helped to cultivate this social and fraternal relation with the members who attended them. And it is to be regretted that all the meetings held by our Grand Officers were not a success.

We are of the opinion that the membership and the community in which these Round Table meetings were held do not appreciate the hard work and expense that the Grand Officers and members are put to to attend these meetings. If they did we are sure they would all have been well attended.

Therefore, we suggest and recommend to our Grand Officers that they discontinue holding these Round Table meetings, and that they hold such other meetings as in their best judgment would be to the benefit of the Order.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to "Weak Lodges," report as follows:

Our Grand Master asks for a special recommendation to appoint a special deputy to visit the weaker lodges. We find that Section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution gives the Grand Master authority to appoint a special deputy to visit any subordinate lodge when he may deem it proper. We would recommend that the Grand Master exercise his authority already given him and send a special deputy with instructions to help the weaker lodges in getting members.

Geo. E. Hershman, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to "Duties and Report of Grand Master," have examined the same and are glad to note that the Order in this State at this time is in good condition, and there is a bright prospect ahead for Odd Fellowship in Indiana. This speaks well for the Grand Master, J. T. Arbuckle, and other Grand Lodge officers, who have devoted much time and energy in their work and are entitled to the congratulations of the entire membership of the State.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled "Acknowledgments," have read the same and do heartily approve all that he has said therein. No words can, however, express the real feeling in the heart of the Grand Master for the services rendered by the brothers and sisters named therein. We feel that it is just for our Grand Officers to indicate as best they can the feeling of their hearts by publicly acknowledging the kindness extended to them by those who love and serve them.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to "Summary for Year 1914" and "Indiana Odd Fellowship Summarized Since Organization," have carefully examined the same, and while we realize that this work adds materially to the duties of our good Grand Secretary Leedy, we feel that it will be of great good to the membership to have before them for their examination and inspection, figures showing what our Order is doing and how it is growing.

E. E. Hastings, P. G. Rep., from the Legislative Committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred the petition of Star in the West Lodge, No. 159, I. O. O. F., Lagrange, Indiana, which is as follows:

LAGRANGE, IND.

To the Legislative Committee of the Semi-Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., May Session, 1915:

Brethern—We call the attention of your committee to Section 125a, at page 99, General Laws, Indiana, 1915. This section, however, does not appear to us to cover the case cited below.

Statement 1. A brother is at present and has been for the past two years an inmate of the Northern Indiana Hospital for the Insane at Longansport, Indiana. 2. He is unmarried. 3. He has an estate. 4. He has no one dependent upon him for support. 5. He has a legally appointed guardian living in Elkhart County, Indiana.

We therefore petition your committee to recommend to the Grand Lodge at its May session, for adoption, an additional section to the law regulating the payment of benefits by a lodge to a brother who is an inmate of a state hospital for the insane, who is unmarried, who has an estate and has no dependent relatives, or for such other legislation in cases of this character as may be deemed just and advisable to you.

Respectfully submitted by order of Star in the West Lodge, No. 159, I. O. O. F., Lagrange, Indiana.

[Seal]

WM. A. FEGLEY, Noble Grand.

W. H. RHENBOTTOM, Secretary.

would recommend that this petition be referred to the Representative of this Grand Lodge to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which meets at San Francisco in September, 1915, with instructions that he prepare and present to the Sovereign Grand Lodge such legislation as is prayed for in said petition.

E. E. Hastings, P. G. Rep., from the Special Committee on a Monument on the Home lot in the Cemetery at Greensburg, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

The undersigned, being the representative from this Grand Lodge on the Monument Committee composed of one member from the Grand Encampment, three members from the Rebekah Assembly and one member from the Grand Lodge, would report that said committee collected $1,460.00, received interest on same amounting to $40.00, making a total of $1,500.00 used by said committee; that said committee purchased the monument dedicated at the Greensburg Cemetery on May 19, 1915, at a cost of $1,000, paid $50.00 for grading lot, $126.00 expenses of committee, and turned over to the Home Committee the sum of $324.00, to be used by said Home Committee in purchasing individual markers and maintaining the Odd Fellows' lot in said cemetery.

Wherefore the undersigned prays that this report be approved and that he be discharged from any further duty herein.

J. F. Carmichael, P. G., from the Legislative Committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report on the "Revision of the General Laws," endorse said recommendation, namely that a further continuance of said committee be made and that the Revision Committee be instructed to report at the November, 1915, session of this Grand Lodge, provided it is able to complete its work after receiving the revised laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Geo. Rogers, G. Rep., from the Committee on Finance and Accounts, made the following report, which was considered and adopted by a rising vote:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Finance and Accounts, believe it no more than just and right that our Grand Master, J. T. Arbuckle, should be recompensed for the extra service he has done the past term all over the State, having abandoned his business at home, and devoted his whole time to the benefit of the Order, giving night and day in the performance of his arduous duties to all parts of the State. We therefore recommend an appropriation be allowed of five hundred dollars for this extra labor performed, for the year.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Finance and Accounts, report that we have audited the books of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer and find them correct.

We have also audited the books of the Grand Trustees and Grand Lodge Hall Association and find them correct.

J. M. Lang, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Finance and Accounts, would recommend the payment of the following claims:

COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS.

Past Grand Master U. Z. Wiley, session November, 1914	4 00

M. A. Chipman, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Judiciary, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the decisions of the Grand Master, from Nos. 1 to 15 inclusive, beg leave to report that we have carefully considered and examined the same and find them correct and respectfully recommend that they be approved.

Also, the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was submitted the appeal of New Hope Lodge, No. 824, from the decision of the Deputy Grand Master upon the question of the approval of an amendment to its by-laws, respectfully report that the proposed amendment is as follows:

ARTICLE VII.

SEC. 7. All members, when sick or disabled, must make same known to the lodge or to the Relief Committee within one week, and no claims will be allowed for more than one week's sickness prior to notice thereof being given. If the brother be out of the jurisdiction of this lodge, sick or disabled, report must be made and his claim must in all cases be accompanied by the certificate of a reputable physician setting forth the nature and continuance of such sickness or disability. Said brother must report under the rules set forth above and be under the immediate care of the lodge nearest him.

The Deputy Grand Master approved the by-law with the exception of the word "one" before the words "week's sickness," and inserted the word "four" in lieu thereof. So that instead of providing that the lodge would not allow for more than one week's benefits prior to notice, that it shall be provided therein "no claims will be allowed for more than four weeks' sickness or disability prior to notice thereof being given."

This question was decided by this Grand Lodge at the May session, 1907. See proceedings 1907, pp 5377 and 5474, and in that decision the Grand Lodge decided that "no claims will be allowed for more than four weeks' sickness or disability prior to notice thereof."

We therefore recommend that the decision of the Deputy Grand Master be approved.

H. M. Kean, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Memorial, made the following report, which was considered, and, after remarks by George Rogers, G. Rep., the report was adopted by a rising vote:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Memorial Committee begs leave to report the following concerning the death of Brother M. Richard Muckle, Grand Treasurer of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

The poet Longfellow, in "The Cloister" said, "The young may die, but the old must." The truthfulness of the latter part of this quotation has been proven by the passing away of Brother M. Richards Muckle, of Philadelphia, Pa., that grand old man and loyal Odd Fellow, aged over 90 years and who for nearly 20 years served our Sovereign Grand Lodge faithfully and well as its treasurer, and who for 58 years served the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania in the same capacity.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars passed through his hands during those long, long years, but at no time was Brother Muckle ever short one penny, which evidences, not only his honesty, but his accuracy and efficiency as an officer of the greatest fraternal organization in the world.

I had the pleasure of meeting Brother Muckle at three different sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and though he was past the age of 80 at the first of these sessions, yet no man in either of the three sessions was younger in thought or action than Brother Muckle. He was one of the men who would not grow old. He believed in that passage of Holy Writ which says, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." He thought in his heart that he was young and he knew in his heart that he was not old, and so, despite his years, the words of his mouth, the meditations of his heart and the activity of his mind and body united in making him appear to be much younger than he really was.

We have no detailed account of the life or death of Brother Muckle, and it is not necessary that we should have, because as some writer has said, "All men are wont to praise a man who is no more", and it is not our object to praise Brother Muckle. Our praise could do him no good. His acts, his conduct, his everyday life as an Odd Fellow and a man are what counted for him in his life, and they are the things that will count for you and for me in our lives.

We have reason to believe that Brother Muckle had lived right and had no cause to fear death.

Mr. Tyron Edwards once said, "A faithful Christian life in this world is the best preparation for the next." Socrates, the great philosopher, once wrote: "Be of good cheer about death, and know this of a truth, that no evil can happen to a good man either in life or after death." Another great writer has said, "Death to a good man is but passing through a dark entry out of one little dusky room of his Father's House into another that is larger, lighter and more glorious."

We hope Brother Muckle, through death, has passed into a larger, a lighter and a more glorious habitation in his Father's Mansion than was his position here on earth. We hope, too, that death will bring to each one here a greater blessing than life brought to him.

Charles Frohman, who lost his life a few days ago by the sinking of the Lusitania, said just before his death as the ship was going down, "Why fear death? It is the most beautiful adventure of life."

Why should Odd Fellows, Christian Odd Fellows, fear death? The ancients had a right to fear death, but Christians, with a risen Christ, ought not to fear it. Our faith in immortality should be so strong that death to us should be the door through which we will pass to see wonders that the eye hath not seen, nor the ear heard, nor the heart conceived, wonders prepared by the Lord for us according to His promises.

But some here today may fear death. If you do, you should have a remedy for that fear, and the great writer Norris has given us a remedy. He says:

"I know of but one remedy against the fear of death, and that is, a good life, a clear conscience and an honest heart."

We believe Brother Muckle possessed this remedy, and we hope that his death will be an incentive to us to live a good life, possess a clear conscience and an honest heart, and that when our time comes to go, that we will approach our death "With unfaltering trust, like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Fraternally submitted,

HORACE M. KEAN,
THOMAS R. JESSUP,
Committee.

On motion, it was ordered that an account of the visit of the members of the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Lodge to the Ford Motor Company's factory, Tuesday, May 18th, be incorporated in the proceedings of this session, and also an account of the excursion to the Home and dedication of the monument in the Greensburg Cemetery, including the addresses delivered on these occasions.

T. R. Jessup, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Memorial, made the following report, which was considered and, after remarks by Brother Jessup, the report was adopted by a rising vote:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Memorial, beg leave to report:

Our coming and meeting together as brothers enjoying life and its pleasures, greeting each other in the name of Friendship, taking a moment of time reviewing the actors as they come and go, advising, chiding, suggesting, putting to use things that will be helpful in keeping the standard of manhood higher, assisting in our way of closing the door to all that is low and groveling; making the walk of brothers brighter, letting sunlight in homes that have been clouded by darkness, taking by the hand him that has been chilled by misfortune, speaking kind words of encouragement, strewing the pathway of brothers with Friendship, Truth, and Love, with those little mementoes that gladden the hearts of the children of men, opening the windows of life that all may see and know that good, and only good, comes from the teachings and practice of Odd Fellowship.

In this way lived our Brother W. L. Kuykendall, like all commencing at the bottom, learning the lessons taught by our beloved Order in such a way that the Brotherhood of this Jurisdiction advanced him step by step, filling each place so well that it caused him to become a member of the highest tribunal in Odd Fellowship—in that great body taking an active part in the work as assigned to him for many years, an active member of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals. From the work as a committeeman the Brotherhood placed him at the head of Odd Fellowship everywhere, he giving to the work an earnest and loyal activity. In life he was kind, hopeful, trustful, believing in humanity, at all times ready to do the best he knew. So lived and passed away our brother, Past Grand Sire W. L. Kuykendall.

It is no longer a greeting. Must we say that the mind and heart of this our brother is stilled in death, or is it just memory sketches? Can we not say that in the passing away of our brother, he has gone to a rest waiting to take by the hand brothers and sisters that are passing that way, and to us that remain may we not remember though night comes with a darker moon,

“God has not forgotten the world,
For day will come with a brighter sun.
God will remember the world.”

H. M. Kean, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Whereas, Opal Hollett, daughter of John Hollett, deceased, who at the time of his demise was a brother in good standing of Jubilee Lodge, No. 268, I. O. O. F., Etna Green, Ind., is an orphan and a paralytic and unable to care for herself, and having no one to look after her; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is not the intention and purpose of Odd Fellowship to permit the infirm of our dependents to be cared for by stranger charity; and be it further

Resolved, That this Grand Body recommends that the Home Committee suspends its rules and take her as an inmate of the Home the same as if she were eligible.

Edwin Farrer, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Printing and Supplies, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Printing and Supplies, respectfully report that we have given careful attention to the business entrusted to us, endeavoring to guard and promote the interests of this Grand Lodge and the Order we represent. The business of the Order in this Jurisdiction requires a large quantity of printed matter of the best grade and calls for more than ordinary prompt, quick supply. During the past term the work and supplies furnished by the printing house of W. B. Burford, of this city, have been of very satisfactory quality, and, after due deliberation and careful investigation, we were led to the conclusion that we could do no better than to renew the contract with Mr. Burford for another year, which we were enabled to do without any increase of prices, notwithstanding the fact that the cost of material and scale of wages are higher than formerly.

Warrants for the payment of bills rendered for printing and supplies have been issued only when authorized by this committee after careful examination and the correction of any errors found therein.

For all our acts as herein reported we ask the approval of the Grand Lodge.

G. G. Sherwood, P. G., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relative to the "Encampment Branch," beg to report that we heartily endorse the same, and we are glad to note the harmony that exists between these two heads of the Order. The Encampment branch needs the support of every true Odd Fellow and every Odd Fellow needs the lessons that are taught in this branch of our Order. We trust that every Encampment member will see to it that those who are not members of that branch of the Order will become members, and in that way hold up the hands of Brother H. F. Fulling, our Grand Patriarch, who has given so much of his valuable time to the work of making better Odd Fellows and citizens throughout the State.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to "Statistical—Subordinate Branch," beg to report that we heartily concur in the same. We feel that the consolidation of the weak lodges is a necessity to the welfare of our Order, and gives the members courage to work for the better interests of Odd Fellowship.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred the Grand Secretary's report concerning the "Dedication," would respectfully report that we note with pleasure the number of lodges that have been dedicated to true spirit of Odd Fellowship in the past six months, and that so many of our Grand Officers have taken part in these dedications. We also note some lodges have not reported their dedications. We would suggest that all lodges that have so dedicated make a report to the Grand Secretary so that they may become a matter of record.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to "Divisions of Lodges by Members," beg leave to report that we have examined the same and have found that we have a number of weak lodges through the State ranging from five to ten members.

We beg leave to suggest that the lodges that are so weak that they cannot stand alone be given every support possible by our Grand Officers and the surrounding lodges. It would be better to consolidate these lodges than to allow them to go defunct on account of interest. It is the opinion of your committee that lodges are often instituted at places where if those who have the matter in charge would be more considerate they would never have been instituted and thus save the Grand Lodge the trouble and expense of taking up their charters.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to "Roll of Honor," beg leave to report that we heartily concur in this part of his report. We believe that Brother W. H. Leedy, our Grand Secretary, has put a great deal of enthusiasm into the lodges through the State by this Roll of Honor, and many members have been added to our subordinate lodges by the desire to be first on this roll; but we should be careful not to forget that it is quality instead of quantity we want in reaching the pinnacle of this roll.

A. H. Minor, P. G., from the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Mileage and Per Diem, most respectfully report that we have computed the mileage and per diem of the Officers and Representatives of the Grand Lodge at this session, and submit the following report:

Report No. 26, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 10, from the Judiciary Committee, was considered, and, after discussion by Bros. Bornwasser, Pryor and others, Brother Pryor submitted the following amendment:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We move to strike out all that part of Report No. 10 on page 18 of the printed Proceedings of May 19th, beginning with the word "yes" in the tenth line thereof, and all that follows in said report, and insert in lieu thereof the word "no."

Which, after discussion by several members, was adopted, and the report as amended was adopted.

On motion, a unanimous standing vote of thanks was given to Bro. Charles W. Fairbanks for the splendid address delivered yesterday at the dedication of the monument at Greensburg, with the request that he consent to its publication in the Revised Journal.

The Grand Master presented Bro. John B. Cockrum, P. G. Sire, who addressed the Grand Lodge in his usual eloquent manner, congratulating the brothers upon the excellent condition of the Order and upon the general appearance of the Representatives present. Also referred to the terrible war in Europe, expressing earnest desire for the coming of peace.

The Grand Master introduced Bro. H. F. Fulling, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Indiana, who spoke as follows:

Grand Master and Brothers—I very much appreciate the very kind words your worthy Grand Master, Brother Arbuckle, has said about me in introducing me to you, and thank him very much. I also desire at this time to thank him for the very kind things he said in his report about me and the work I have been trying to do and the kindness he has shown toward the Encampment Branch of the Order. I want to thank you for your kindness in adopting as your own the kind words so spoken by the Grand Master. It has been a great pleasure to me to have the Grand Master as a traveling companion over the State. When the returns come in and the full result of his labors will be known I am sure you will say that the honor you bestowed upon him has not been undeserved and you will feel proud of his work.

In all of my addresses over the State I have never lost an opportunity to say something in behalf of the Rebekah Degree. Under the leadership of that excellent good woman, Sister Clark, the President of the Rebekah Assembly, that branch of the Order has grown and done well. She has unstintingly given her time and earnest efforts to her work and no doubt has accomplished much good. I am sure the incoming President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Stipp, will do all in her power to help that worthy branch of our Order.

We owe much to these noble, good women of the Rebekah Degree. It is to them that we are almost exclusively indebted for our Home at Greensburg. The Subordinate and Encampment Branches of our Order had tried for several years to build an Odd Fellows' Home in this State and failed. We turned it over to the Rebekahs, and in less than one year they had laid the corner stone of the grandest monument to Odd Fellowship in Indiana and to my mind the grandest in the world.

Yesterday we made a trip to Greensburg and there dedicated a beautiful monument. This, too, we owe to these good women. It was through their efforts that the funds were raised, and this monument to the sacred memory of our beloved dead at the Home was erected.

We should therefore lend them encouragement, and I believe that every subordinate member should also be a member of the Rebekah Degree.

I cannot pass without noticing that excellent address of our great brother, C. W. Fairbanks, ex-Vice-President of the United States. It is a great credit to our Order to have such men belong to it and we are always glad to welcome them to our ranks.

I am especially interested in the Encampment Branch of our Order. It must be remembered that all the branches of our Order are co-ordinate and all make a harmonious whole. When you have taken the subordinate degrees you are but little more than a beginner. It is like the bud of the flower, but when you take the Encampment degrees the bud begins to open, its petals spread out and it is then that you realize the full beauty and fragrance of the Order and its great teachings of Faith, Hope and Charity. Every subordinate member ought to belong to the Encampment Branch.

While we have done much and worked hard it must not be forgotten that there has been behind all this a great force, moving and planning all the time. That force has been with us for some years and it is my sincere hope that it may be with us many more. We see it in every session of the Grand Lodge, Grand Encampment and Rebekah Assembly. It reaches out to every lodge and encampment in the State and makes itself felt in every Odd Fellow's home. The name of that force is familiar to every one. It is that grand, good Odd Fellow sitting here at my right hand, our worthy Grand Secretary and Grand Scribe, Brother Leedy. I thank you.

The Grand Secretary reported that the following Past Grand Masters were present at the session:

William H. Leedy.

Ulric Z. Wiley.

W. H. Talbott.

Marcellus A. Chipman.

Thos. R. Jessup.

Geo. P. Bornwasser.

VISIT TO THE FORD MOTOR COMPANY PLANT.

The afternoon of May 18th was given to an inspection of the Ford Motor Company's plant on East Washington street. The invitation of the company to make the inspection was made to both members of the Rebekah Assembly and the Grand Lodge. Probably 2,500 members accepted the invitation. The Ford Company had assembled on the day previous, May 17th, sixty Ford cars, to which were added forty cars assembled during the forenoon of the 18th for the express purpose of conveying the visitors from the Grand Lodge building to the factory, requiring several trips by each of these 100 cars, but the service was so well planned and perfect that in an hour all had reached the great assembly room, where seats had been provided for 1,500, hundreds being unable to obtain seats, nor, in fact, entrance to the room. The Grand Officers were seated on a stage prepared for the brief exercises of welcome. Mr. Alvin H. Smith, superintendent, presided. The first part of the program was the marking of an engine by Grand Master J. T. Arbuckle, in the presence of the great audience, which was at once removed to the work rooms and an auto was assembled while the exercises were proceeding. Mr. Smith gave an address of welcome, in which was included much interesting information regarding the Ford Motor Company and particularly its Indianapolis branch. He said:

Ladies and Gentlemen: We are going to mark the motor that you see here, and while you are in the building it will be assembled in a Ford car and your officials will drive back home with one of the ladies who is on this platform as a chauffeur. Mr. Arbuckle will place any mark which he sees fit on this motor so that we will not be able to practice any deception.

Our gathering today is like Odd Fellowship—it has no end. (Applause.) So I think we had better begin the exercises. Oratory is not one of the qualifications for the management of a plant like this. Therefore, you will have to excuse my poor attempt in this connection. We are hired for our good work, not our good looks or our flowery words, but I do want to extend to you ladies and gentlemen of Indiana, who have honored us today with your presence, a hearty welcome in the name of Henry Ford of Detroit, at whose plant and whose guests you are today. Mr. Ford is a very bashful man and if he were here today he would not have as much nerve as I have, but his heart would be with you, and he is very proud to know that we have gatherings of this kind.

I suppose you have all heard of Mr. Ford; he is reported to do a great many things that he does not do, and I assure you that he does a great many things that the public does not know about. We employes who have had the good fortune to meet him have all learned to love him because of his great democracy. He is just the same as the rest of us—a man among men.

I can't say very much to you today about Odd Fellowship, because I have not the honor to be a member of your organization, but I learned with a great deal of pleasure this morning that the head of our family is a Rebekah (applause) and she told me to be mighty careful of what I said; and I may add that it gives me great pleasure so to do. When my wife was a young lady and had the misfortune to lose her father and mother very suddenly and was put in straightened circumstances, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were the ones that came to her need first. (Applause.) The works that you ladies and gentlemen are doing today are particularly appreciated by the Ford Motor Company because we are trying to do the same thing in a commercial way.

Mr. Ford's slogan is to help the other fellow. Your organization is certainly doing that thing and it is therefore peculiarly fitting that we should have the honor of greeting you today. I wish that I could tell you about some of the work we are doing along lines similar to your work, but we have not the time. Mr. Leedy is acquainted with some of it. He heard one of our representatives who has the ability to describe these things deliver a talk on the subject at the Odd Fellows' Hall, and he can testify that we are thoroughly in sympathy with your work.

All the employes of this plant are partners with Mr. Ford; this plant is a trusteeship given to us by Mr. Ford for mutual advantage. The employes are all residents of this State; they are all sharing in the profits of the plant. The plant is dedicated to Ford owners, past and prospective, and our slogan is "Ford Service for Ford Owners." I hope there are a great many Ford owners in this audience that hear me make that statement, therefore when you go through the plant today, you that are Ford owners, inspect it with the feeling of ownership, because it is from your patronage that we have been able to establish it.

In that connection I just want to make a few brief references to the growth of the company which will explain why we need this plant: In 1910 we had eight employes and did a gross business of $559,000; in 1912 the business increased to $1,035,000; in 1913 season it increased to $2,434,000; in 1914 season it increased to $3,084,000; our season does not end until July 31st this year—we have cut the season to ten months in order to change our fiscal year—and I am figuring on $4,000,000 for this period.

We have 319 employes today; at the present time our salary roll is $30,000 per month, and in thirty days from now the major portion of these employes will be on the profit-sharing plan and will have their income more than doubled.

This branch in 1910 sold but 870 cars; in 1911, 1,725 cars; 1913, 4,660 cars; 1914, 7,292 cars; we have sold in seven months of the present year 4,984 cars up to two days ago, and we had 4,184 unfilled orders on our books which we expect to fill before August 1st.

To give you an idea of how the business has increased in Indianapolis, in 1910 we sold 23 cars; 1912, 362 cars; last year 548 cars. When we started we had eleven agents throughout the State, which is 67 counties, and at the present we have 164 representatives in your cities. Since this building was established a few months ago we have distributed $72,000 in profits outside of the real income to employes. We have a capacity of 140 cars a day with our present equipment, but, unfortunately, cannot get material enough to build over 50 at the present time. We have assembled 2,800 cars since we have been in the plant; the cars you rode in today were made yesterday and this morning. We built 60 yesterday and 40 this morning; we started at six o'clock in order to get the 40 out.

Our company has made a tentative announcement which I desire to make to you—not as a matter of advertising, but simply as a matter of interest, because a great many of you come from the rural districts—and that is that Mr. Ford contemplates the manufacture of a tractor to take the place of horses on the farm. We have a number of them working and it is expected within the next year that we will be in a position to make one million of these tractors and distribute them within twelve months. The price has not been established, but will be somewhere between $200 and $300. If we realize our ambition in this connection it will revolutionize farming and Mr. Ford's work will be a greater monument than it is today.

Now after Mr. Arbuckle has addressed you we will be ready to inspect the plant; we will use the two elevators—the one on this side and the one across the crane-way, where you will pass to the roof, and by moving to the right will be able to see the entire plant from the roof down. I beg your pardon, I got my dates mixed; Mr. Leedy will respond.

There is nothing further that I can think of of interest; therefore I will close by saying that I thank you from the heart for your presence today. (Applause.)

W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, responded as follows:

Mr. Smith and Gentlemen of the Ford Motor Company: I desire to say in behalf of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Indiana that we greatly appreciate your kind words of welcome and the information that Mr. Smith, the superintendent of this plant, has given to us. The membership of the Order here present represents practically every town and city of the State and every well-populated rural community. There are probably 2,500 members present. The total number of subordinate lodges in the State is 760; Rebekah lodges, 582; and Encampments 285, giving us a total lodge number of nearly or quite 1,500. It is but fair to estimate that there are not many of these several lodges that are not represented here now.

I might compare our Order—the greatest fraternal society in the world, a society that devotes itself to visiting the sick, relieving the distressed, burying the dead, and educating the orphan—to your great automobile corporation. Its funds are sacred to the purposes named. Its work is directed toward this one aim and result.

Now, Mr. Smith, representing as you do the greatest and largest motor manufacturing company in the world, we feel that it is a great pleasure to greet you and the representatives of this manufacturing establishment and to say how deeply we appreciate the courtesy you are extending to us and the kind words of welcome that you have spoken. We will carry back to our several lodges kind memories of this occasion, and we assure you, or I assure you in behalf of these members here assembled, that we are most earnestly and sincerely grateful for this magnificent occasion. (Applause.)

The great throng of visitors was conveyed by elevators to the roof, whence they passed down from floor to floor through the great structure, inspecting with great interest and pleasure the almost innumerable branches and details of a great automobile manufacturing establishment. On leaving the building the machine that had been constructed while the visitors were on their tour of inspection, of which the engine had been marked by the Grand Master, was standing at the front entrance with a young lady, Mrs. Elnora Keys, of Attica, Ind., at the wheel, and under her expert chauffeurship the Grand Master and Mrs. Arbuckle, little Martha Nauer and the Grand Secretary were driven quickly, comfortably and safely back to the place of beginning, the Grand Lodge building.

Regardless of the threatening weather and frequent showers 1,413 members of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly went by two special trains at 12:30 p. m., May 19, to visit the Home and unveil and dedicate a monument erected on the Odd Fellows' lot in the Greensburg cemetery to the memory of the brother and sister residents of the Home who are or in the future may be buried there. The service of the Big Four Railway both going and returning was splendid, not only beyond criticism, but receiving and being entitled to great praise. Reaching the Home at 2:00 o'clock, the members devoted an hour and a half to an inspection of the Home buildings and grounds and in visitations to the Home guests. At 3:30 p. m., under the marshalship of Will C. Ehrhardt, Grand Marshal of the Grand Lodge, assisted by Geo. G. Sherwood of Valparaiso and W. M. Nauer, P. G. M., of Vernon, a parade was formed for the march to the cemetery, as follows:

BAND.

Maj. Gen. Jos. A. DeHority, D. C.

Col. John O. Clarke.

Canton Seymour, No. 11, Seymour—28 Swords.

Grand Master, Grand Patriarch, President of the Rebekah Assembly, and other Grand Officers; members of the Home Committee, and the speakers of the day,

Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks and Ella M.

Clark, P. P., in automobiles.

Members of the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Lodge.

Automobiles containing residents of the Home, aged visitors, etc.

The attendance of Canton Seymour, No. 11, in full uniform was greatly appreciated and added much to the imposing parade.

The column was quite a mile in length. The line of march was southward through the winding drives of the grounds to the principal street, then west to the court house, around the public square, thence south two blocks to the cemetery and monument. Here 3,000 people assembled when the ceremonies were begun. The monument was veiled with American flags.

The Unveiling and Dedication.

The program and ceremonies were as follows:

W. H. Leedy, Chairman.

1. Music by the Band.
2. Opening Ode—Audience.
3. Invocation—Rev. A. J. Carey, Grand Chaplain.

Introductory remarks by W. H. Leedy:

4. Remarks by the chairman as follows:

Brothers and Sisters: This monument is erected in loving memory of our brothers and sisters of our Home who have passed on before us. They passed through the busy stages of life and reached an age when they were not of such physical benefit to themselves and others as many of us have been. We do not strive to honor them as heroes, as the world looks upon heroes;

they did not give up their lives for their country, as the soldier is expected to, and does do. Just a little while ago I passed through a cemetery in Georgia, in Marietta; there were two, in fact, a confederate and a federal cemetery. The federal cemetery there contains some twelve or fourteen thousand forms, men who gave up their lives for their country; they were not old men, they were not lame and halt and blind, they were the youth of the land. Whether these figures are correct or not, I somewhere saw a statement that there was one soldier in the war eight years of age! Three or four, ten years of age! More than one hundred and fifty thousand, fifteen years of age or less! The very flower of our manhood. Now we do not seek to take away any of the honors due to them, but the good deeds that came from the hearts and the hands of these brothers and sisters of ours, we would praise and remember forever.

Brother and sister Odd Fellows, one of the greatest pleasures that I have experienced in my work in Odd Fellowship I now enjoy—in having with us this splendid man, this splendid Odd Fellow, and this splendid citizen, brother, the Honorable Charles W. Fairbanks, ex-Vice-President of the United States, who will speak to you upon this occasion. (Applause.)

Address by Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks:

5. Address by Charles W. Fairbanks:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I crave your indulgence if I speak with my hat on. It is the only thing I have on. (Laughter.)

I share with you, I know, in regretting that the Committee of Arrangements, which has so generously provided for our wants and wishes, overlooked the matter of the weather this afternoon. It is the only time that Brother Leedy has not completed a program symmetrical and agreeable throughout.

I want to thank the committee for the privilege of speaking to you. My words, however, will be brief, for I realize that the climatic conditions do not sanction extended utterance.

I have had a delightful experience since leaving Indianapolis and coming to Greensburg, and by the way, next to Indianapolis I think Greensburg is the finest city in the world. Of course this proposition stands good till I visit some other city. I have felt that it would be a safe one here.

I have been greatly impressed as we have gone through the halls, parlors and living rooms of the Odd Fellows' Home with the wide-reaching beneficence of this great Order. There is much need of Odd Fellowship, there is much need, my friends, of inculcating the spirit of fraternity among men and women. There never was an hour in the history of mankind when that necessity was greater than now. We have fondly believed that we were enjoying the heritage of the achievements of the past, that we were enjoying a higher order of civilization than had existed since humanity began its race in this world, and yet it so happens that we are living in the bloodiest era since the stars first sang together. In other countries men are not engaged in peaceful and ennobling exercises such as engage our attention this afternoon; they are, with shot and shell, tearing down the sacred monuments of the past and brutalizing human nature. Go into the Old World, out of which has come much of our literature, much of our philosophy, much of our civilization; there men are engaged in destroying each other upon a more gigantic scale than ever in all of the history of time. There is more need than ever in the world today of the beneficent, civilizing influence of such great orders as the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. What a wonderful contrast our experience is to that which our friends face beyond the sea.

As we grow in population, as the contests of life become severer, there is increasing need that men and women should feel more and more the beneficent influences of such great fraternal organizations as this. As the contest in life increases there is more and more need that such great institutions should come into our lives—inspiring us to higher and finer things.

As I passed through the Home here today and looked upon the aged and infirm men and aged and infirm women, and looked upon the bright-eyed boys and girls who are the wards of this great fraternity, I said thank God for Odd Fellowship in America. It is in a very especial sense the guardian of those who have been smitten with the hand of misfortune, it is the protector of the young and the helpless; in short, it ministers to the needs of humanity in the finest and the noblest possible way, and I want to thank the officers of this great Order, I want to thank the men and women who are engaged in this ennobling service, for they are in the best sense ministers of God Almighty. It is the spirit of the Master which is actuating the men and women engaged in this mighty work.

I have had some disillusionings this afternoon. I had supposed that the builders of this Home here were men, and I had thought that men erected this monument. I talked with brother Odd Fellows about it and they said they did it, and I have talked with the women and they say they did it. Well, now, I am going to believe the women. You can always believe the women, but you can't always believe the men, for so many of them are politicians. (Laughter.) But we will give honor where honor is due. Of course they co-operated, men and women, in the achievement of these fine results.

It has been said by my brother Leedy—by the way, he is the man that got me into this trouble—that we erect this monument to commemorate the memories of those who were not renowned and who have laid down their lives, who have finished their work. In a larger sense, this monument does not commemorate their virtues, does not commemorate their services in modest ways; in a larger sense it commemorates the virtues of the entire body, men and women, who have built it here.

The travelers who in the future come to this silent city of the dead and behold this classic monument will realize that brave men and women, noble men and women, Christian men and women, men and women inspired by the spirit of the good Samaritan, have erected it, and beneath the silent stars it will stand here for ages to come, a monument to their virtues.

I have seen many of the monuments of the world. I have seen monuments in the Orient, and in Europe, and in America; each monument tells a different story. I have seen monuments to the great heroes who have laid down their lives upon the battlefields of the world, I have seen monuments to philosophers and to poets and to statesmen and to great publicists; I never saw one that tells a finer story than this modest monument which we dedicate today. For you see in it an expression of all of those finer influences which ennoble the human heart. How long will it stand? No one save Omnipotence can tell, but we, in our fondest dreams, hope that it will stand as long as people are in need of civilizing influences, as long as men and women love virtue and are eager to discover those in need of their kindly ministrations. The great office of any monument is to convey to the living generation the lessons of service and sacrifice. I said awhile ago there was never more need of such a fraternity as this than now. There was never more need of it in America than now, for we wish to keep alive the finer virtues in men and women. We wish to stimulate lofty thought; we wish to stimulate the spirit of brotherly love. One of the fine things about Odd Fellowship is the great cardinal virtues for which it stands, Friendship, Love, and Truth. What finer trinity is there in all of the lexicon of man? Friendship! What were a world without friendship? Take out of life that blessed word and we would become savages. Love! In all of the vocabulary of the human race there is no nobler and sweeter word. It is the foundation of the home, the foundation of our modern Christian civilization. Truth! Loyalty to cause; loyalty to man; it stands in perfect fellowship with the two I first mentioned. Yes, Friendship, Love and Truth. If we are loyal to them we cannot be false to each other. At the base of our civilization is Mercy. The fundamental thought which comes into my mind when I think of what we have seen today and what we behold here is that Mercy is after all the foundation of the other virtues, and there bloom and blossom in the garden of the human soul no finer virtues than those I have mentioned. I am reminded, and I am going to speak but a word, of the story of the creation of man. It comes to my mind as we meet and mingle in this delightful fellowship.

When God first conceived the thought of Man's creation He called unto His throne the three angels which constantly attend there, Truth, Justice, and Mercy. "Shall we make Man?" And Truth said, "Oh, God, make him not, for he will trample upon thy laws." And then addressing Justice, He said, "Shall we make Man?" And Justice said, "Make him not, for he will pollute thy sanctuaries." Then God, addressing Mercy, said, "Shall we make Man?" And Mercy, falling upon her knees and crying, through her tears said, "Oh, God, make Man, and I will follow him through the dark paths he may have to tread." Then God made Man, and thus addressed him: "Man, thou art the Son of Mercy. Go thou and deal with thy fellowman." This is the very soul and spirit of Odd Fellowship.

Today we take off our hats in reverent tribute to the splendid men and women who are serving this great Order and who are making life better and sweeter to thousands and thousands of our citizens in Indiana and to thousands of our fellowmen elsewhere throughout the world.

As the ages come and go may the sweet influence of this great Order expand throughout the entire world. (Applause.)

Chairman: My friends, I have the very great pleasure of presenting to you that splendid sister of ours who has just retired from the office of the Rebekah Assembly, a position which she honored, who will speak to you in behalf of the Rebekahs.

Address by Ella M. Clark:

6. Address of Mrs. Ella M. Clark.

Brothers and Sisters: On this occasion I take pleasure in greeting you. And I appreciate the opportunity to speak to you briefly. The conditions and circumstances under which we meet are peculiar. We necessarily look back through the years and are impressed with the fact that then as now Odd Fellowship represented the very best traits of humanity; then as now it appealed to the kindest sympathies and the highest ideals of mankind. Its ear was open to the cry of distress. Its hand was outstretched to help the needy.

Brothers and sisters in this jurisdiction many years ago recognized that individual lodges could not fully and adequately meet the problem of relief of widows and orphans, and the care of poor and aged brothers and sisters.

The generous impulse of Odd Fellows throughout the State found expression in a movement to build an Odd Fellows' Home for the better care of the needy of our Order. It found its realization in the establishment of this institution here at Greensburg, in which the Odd Fellows of the State take a just pride, and which you as their representatives have today availed yourselves of this opportunity to visit.

This institution is the embodiment of the principles of Odd Fellowship as taught in the lodge rooms and the daily lives of all good Odd Fellows everywhere. Here we find a comfortable home for the brothers and sisters on whom time has laid its heavy hand and to whom good fortune has passed by upon the other side. Here prattling childhood robbed of the kindly nurture of home and parents finds its nearest substitute.

Amidst these conditions, however pleasant and agreeable, the shadow of death will fall. And our duty to bury the dead rests upon us here. In performance of that duty this plat of ground in this beautiful cemetery has been acquired as a final resting place of the earthly remains of those residents of the Home who are to be buried here. Here some are buried. A few years ago out of the kindly spirit of Odd Fellowship and of the Rebekahs of this jurisdiction was born the idea of a monument to be erected here as a memorial to these our humble dead.

This idea found generous and hearty support. And by voluntary contributions the committee appointed for the purpose has been enabled to procure and cause to be erected here this memorial, which we today unveil in memory of our humble dead, who are buried her.

Monuments are usually erected and dedicated to men who have achieved fame as warriors for heroic deeds, or renown as statesmen for public service, or to noble women for great and unselfish sacrifice in the cause of humanity, that future generations may be inspired with high ideals and taught patriotism and love of country thereby and a desire to emulate their lives and example.

We today unveil this modest memorial to our humble dead. It is not expensive. It is not imposing. It does not call attention to great achievements on fields of battle nor in civil life. Only in a modest, humble way it silently expresses the true sentiments of our Order, that in kindness and charity, as we travel this way but once, we do what good we can. No brother or sister so humble but what we are ready to honor him or her for fidelity to truth and honor and right living.

We may not by this memorial add to the lives of those now dead and buried here, who went out from our Home amid the falling shadows of a closed and humble life, but who were brothers and sisters, and as such we cherish and remember.

We are thankful that we have been able to see this day. It gives us increased love for our Order and renewed hope that we will go on to still greater things and to a fuller faith in the realization of our higher ideals, thus more fully exemplifying in our daily lives the principles of F. L. & T.

“These are the three great chords of might,
And he whose ear is tuned aright
Will hear no discord in the three,
But the most perfect harmony.”

The unveiling:

7. Unveiling.

8. Song, “America,” during which monument was unveiled.

My country, 'tis of thee,	My native country, thee,
Sweet land of liberty,	Land of the noble free,
Of thee I sing.	Thy name I love.
Land where my fathers died.	I love thy rocks and rills,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,	Thy woods and templed hills,
From ev'ry mountain side,	My heart with rapture thrills
Let freedom ring.	Like that above.

Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

The flags that were used in the veiling were removed by little orphan boys and girls of the Home.

Chairman: I now have the pleasure of presenting Sister Mary A. Poths, P. P., chairman of the committee appointed to erect this monument, who will formally transfer this completed structure to the several branches of the Order.

Address by Mary A. Poths:

Grand Master, Grand Patriarch, President of the Rebekah Assembly, and Department Commander—Brothers and Sisters:

In the name and in behalf of the committee appointed by your respective Grand Bodies to erect a memorial upon this ground to the members of our Odd Fellows' Home, who now, or in the future, may sleep here, the funds for this purpose having been the love-gifts of our lodges and members, I take pleasure in advising you that our duties, so far as they relate to the physical and material, are completed; and we now deliver into the possession of our beloved Order, for dedication and permanent care, this monument in granite.

Not unlike those whose kindly deeds it commemorates, it is modest, and substantial. May we emulate the good qualities of our brothers and sisters who here rest, and when it shall become our time, may it be the voice of Him who doeth all things well that shall say unto us, "Well done, thou good and faithful servants."

The formal dedication:

9. Dedication.

J. T. Arbuckle, Grand Master: Hear All Men! By authority of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, and in the name of Friendship, Love and Truth, emblemized by this pure, refreshing and life-giving water, I (striking monument with mallet one time) dedicate this monument.

Song—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

H. F. Fulling, Grand Patriarch: Hear All Men! By authority of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, and in the name of Faith, Hope and Charity, emblemized by the fire this day kindled upon the altar of our hearts, as perpetual as that which burns in the secret Tabernacle of the Most High, I (striking the monument two times with mallet) dedicate this monument.

Song—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below."

Mrs. Mary E. Stipp, President Rebekah Assembly: Hear All Men! By authority of the Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, and in the name of Purity, Innocence and Virtue, emblemized by these beautiful flowers, I (striking the monument three times with mallet) dedicate this monument.

Song—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye Heavenly Hosts."

Maj.-Gen. Jos. A. DeHority, Department Commander: Hear All Men! By authority of the Department Council, Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, I (striking the monument four times with mallet) dedicate this monument, and may the good deeds of our Order, of which these seeds are but an emblem, spring up and yield an hundredfold harvest.

Song—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye Heavenly Hosts,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost."

Benediction—By the Grand Chaplain, Rev. A. J. Cary.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolved, That the hour of 10 o'clock of the second day's session be assigned at the semi-annual and annual communications for the exemplification of the unwritten work by Grand Representatives.

2. Resolved, That at the semi-annual sessions the nomination of officers shall be next in order after the exemplification of the unwritten work, and at the annual session the nomination and election of officers shall follow immediately after the exemplification of the unwritten work.

3. Resolved, That the report of the Grand Representatives be made through the Grand Secretary and be referred to a Special or Standing Committee for distribution, without being read, unless otherwise ordered by a majority vote of the Grand Lodge.

4. Resolved, That after the terms of the present Grand Officers have expired, services as Grand Master shall not of itself be considered as establishing any claim to an election to the office of Grand Representative.—Proceedings Grand Lodge, November Session, 1888.

5. Resolved, That in all future sessions of this Grand Lodge the Grand Marshal be required to reserve seats immediately in front of the Grand Master's chair for the Representatives duly accredited to that session of this Grand Lodge.—November, 1896.

6. Resolved, That all resolutions or propositions for changing or amending the General Laws shall be presented in duplicate—one copy for the Grand Secretary, the other for the committee to which the same shall be referred.—May, 1904, p. 3744.

7. Resolved, That no officer of the Grand Lodge of Indiana after this session shall be installed until he shall, upon proper examination by the Grand Marshal, prove himself competent to deliver the charge or charges appertaining to such office, in opening and closing the Grand Lodge of Indiana.—November, 1904, 404.

8. Resolved, That the Subordinate Lodges of this jurisdiction be and they are hereby authorized and directed, when requested to do so, to issue orders, under the seal of their respective lodges, authorizing the communication of the term and annual traveling passwords, by persons duly authorized to communicate the same, to members of their respective lodges, who may be inmates or residents of the Home and entitled thereto.—1909, 6537.

9. Resolved, That upon the consideration of any cause decided by the Committee on Grievances and Appeals, the sole question submitted to the Grand Lodge shall be: Does the Grand Lodge concur in the finding of the committee? If such question be decided in the affirmative it shall stand as the judgment of the Grand Lodge, subject only to appeal to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. If such question be decided in the negative, such cause shall be referred back to said committee and the same shall have further consideration; and notice shall be given to the party against whom such decision has been made of the time and place of its reconsideration.—1913, 9255.

10. Resolved, That a subordinate lodge of the Grand Jurisdiction of Michigan, located along the line between that State and the State of Indiana, may have the right, and permission is hereby granted by this Grand Lodge therefor, to receive into membership persons whose residence is nearer to the lodge applied to than to the nearest lodge in Indiana, without regard to said State line.—May, 1914, 9493.

11. Resolved, That a subordinate lodge of the Grand Jurisdiction of Ohio, located along the line between that State and the State of Indiana, may have the right, and permission is hereby granted by this Grand Lodge therefor, to receive into membership persons whose residence is nearer to the lodge applied to than to the nearest lodge in Indiana, without regard to said State line.—November, 1914, 9784.
